2. ~~["Alcohol and substance use evaluation"]~~ "Participant" means an eligible defendant who has been admitted into judicial diversion pursuant to this article.

3. "Licensed mental health care professional" means a clinician with professional experience, training and licensure pursuant to title eight of the education law who is qualified to diagnose or treat people with mental health disorders, including substance-related and addictive disorders.

4. "Functional impairment" means a condition that involves clinically significant distress or disability in social, occupational or other areas of functioning due to a mental health disorder, including: substance-related and addictive disorders, neurodevelopmental disorders, neurocognitive disorders, or other disorders as defined in the most recent version of the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders. The court shall defer to licensed mental health care professionals in determining whether a person has a functional impairment. A person may have more than one functional impairment.

5. "Clinical evaluation" means a written assessment and report by a [court-approved entity or] licensed mental health care professional [experienced in the treatment of alcohol and substance use disorder, or] as defined in subdivision three of this section or an evaluation conducted by an addiction and substance [abuse] use disorder counselor credentialed by the office of addiction services and supports pursuant to section 19.07 of the mental hygiene law[~~, which~~]. Such evaluation may

1 be conducted through telehealth when practicable and when delay would
2 otherwise occur. The evaluation shall include:

3 (a) an evaluation as to whether the defendant currently has [~~a history~~
4 ~~of alcohol or substance use disorder~~] one or more functional impairments
5 that may include but not be limited to a mental health disorder, as 6 [~~such terms are~~] defined in the most recent edition of the diagnostic 7 and statistical manual of mental disorders, [~~fifth edition, and a co-oc-~~

11 ~~substance use~~] functional impairments, if any, could be effectively
12 addressed by judicial diversion in accordance with this article;

13 (c) a recommendation as to the treatment modality, level of care and 14 length of any proposed treatment to effectively address the defendant's 15 [~~alcohol or substance use and any co-occurring mental disorder or~~ 16 ~~illness~~] functional impairments; and 19 court.

20 6. "Treatment" means one or more evidence-based interventions includ-
21 ing, but not limited to, counseling, psychotherapy, psychotropic medica-
22 tion or medications for addiction or substance use disorder treatment, 23 health promotion, and overdose prevention education. Treatment for the 24 purposes of this article does not include treatment in a carceral
25 setting or in a forensic hospital pursuant to article seven hundred

27 any clinical service or intervention that assists individuals in their 28 recovery in accordance with harm reduction principles.

30 provide interventions responsive to the needs identified by the defend-
31 ant and clinician during the clinical evaluation.

32 8. "Harm reduction" means a set of proven-effective substance use

34 with the goal of reducing the negative consequences of substance use, 35 preventing overdose and the transmission of infectious diseases, and/or 36 improving the physical, mental, and social well-being of those served.
37 In some cases, as identified by a licensed mental health care profes-
38 sional or a treatment provider, harm reduction interventions may recog-

40 instead aim to achieve a significant reduction or change in use.

41 9. "Certified peers" means professionals who have the lived experience 42 of successfully navigating recovery-oriented systems of care who are 43 certified by the office of mental health or by the office of addiction
44 services and supports to provide peer support services. The peer model 45 should be integrated into every stage of the judicial diversion process.

46 10. "Treatment plan" means an individualized plan developed by a 47 licensed mental health care professional or a treatment provider in 48 conjunction with an eligible defendant, which may include any combina-
49 tion of treatment interventions identified in subdivision six of this 50 section. Provided that:

51 (a) treatment should occur in the setting or settings that are most 52 appropriate to the individual's medical needs.

53 (b) such treatment plan shall take into consideration the best prac-54 tices for addressing any functional impairments identified during the 55 clinical evaluation and any evidence-based and peer-reviewed clinical 56 review criteria that is relevant to the identified functional impair-

1 ment, appropriate to the age of the patient and has been designated or 2 approved by the appropriate state agency or agencies, including but not
3 limited to, the office of mental health, the office of addiction
4 services and supports, and the office for people with developmental 5 disabilities.

6 (c) a treatment plan may include treatment through telehealth when 7 deemed appropriate by a licensed mental health care professional or a 8 treatment provider.

9 (d) a licensed mental health care professional or a treatment provider 10 may modify a treatment plan after the participant has been admitted to 11 the judicial diversion program with the consent of the participant where 12 the licensed mental health care professional or treatment provider deems 13 such modification to be clinically appropriate.

14 11. "Protected health information" means information protected by 15 federal and state laws and regulations governing the privacy of person-
16 ally-identifiable medical information, including the federal Health 17 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Privacy Rule (45 Code of 18 Federal Regulations Parts 160 and 164), 42 United States Code § 290dd-2 19 (42 Code of Federal Regulations Part 2), section 33.13 of the mental 20 hygiene law, article twenty-seven-f of the public health law ("HIV and 21 AIDS Related Information"), and any other relevant health privacy laws
22 and regulations.

23 § 6. Section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chap-
24 ter 435 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

25 § 216.05 Judicial diversion program; court procedures.

26 1. At any time after the local criminal court arraignment of an eligi-27 ble defendant, but prior to the entry of a plea of guilty or the 28 commencement of trial, the court, at the request of the [~~eligible~~] 29 defendant, [~~may~~] shall order [~~an alcohol and substance use~~] a clinical 30 evaluation for all known functional impairments. Such evaluations shall 31 take place without undue delay.

32 (a) The possibility of being evaluated shall not be contingent on a 33 waiver of any other sections of this chapter except subdivision one of 34 section 30.30 of this chapter.

35 [~~An eligible~~] (b) A defendant may decline to [~~participate in~~] undergo 36 such an evaluation at any time.

37 (c) The defendant shall provide a written authorization, in compliance 38 with the requirements of any applicable state or federal laws, rules or 39 regulations authorizing disclosure of the results of the assessment to 40 the defendant's attorney, the prosecutor, the local probation depart-
41 ment, the court, authorized court personnel and other individuals speci-42 fied in such authorization for the sole purpose of determining whether 43 the defendant should be offered judicial diversion for treatment for 44 [~~substance use, alcohol use and any co-occurring mental disorder or~~ 45 ~~mental illness~~] a functional impairment.

46 (d) No statement or other disclosure, written or otherwise, made by a 47 defendant to a licensed mental health care professional or treatment
48 provider may be used by the prosecution to prove any crime or offense
49 alleged in the pending case. All such statements shall be used only for 50 the purposes of making recommendations as defined in subdivision two of 51 this section and shall otherwise remain confidential.

52 2. Upon [~~receipt of the completed alcohol and substance use~~]
53 completion of the clinical evaluation [~~report~~], the [~~court~~] clinician 54 shall provide a copy of the report to the [~~eligible~~] defendant and the 55 [~~prosecutor~~] defendant's counsel. The court and the prosecutor shall 56 receive a copy of the clinical evaluation only if the defendant decides

1 to proceed in requesting judicial diversion. Where the defendant
2 decides to proceed in requesting judicial diversion, they shall consent
3 to disclosure of their protected health information with the court and 4 prosecutor.

5 3. (a) Upon [~~receipt~~] review of the clinical evaluation [~~report~~], the 6 prosecutor and defendant can agree to diversion based on the recommenda-
7 tions in the evaluation report. If the parties disagree, either party
8 may request a hearing on the issue of whether the [~~eligible~~] defendant
9 is an eligible defendant and should be offered [~~alcohol or substance use~~
10 ~~treatment~~] judicial diversion pursuant to this article. At such a 11 proceeding, which shall be held as soon as practicable so as to facili-
12 tate early intervention in the event that the defendant is found to need 13 [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment, the court may consider oral and 14 written arguments, [~~may~~] take testimony from witnesses offered by either 15 party, and [~~may~~] consider any relevant evidence [~~including, but not~~ 16 ~~limited to, evidence that:~~

17 ~~(i) the defendant had within the preceding ten years (excluding any~~ 18 ~~time during which the offender was incarcerated for any reason between~~ 19 ~~the time of the acts that led to the youthful offender adjudication and~~ 20 ~~the time of commission of the present offense) been adjudicated a youth-~~
21 ~~ful offender for: (A) a violent felony offense as defined in section~~
22 ~~70.02 of the penal law, or (B) any offense for which a merit time allow-~~ 23 ~~ance is not available pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of~~ 24 ~~subdivision one of section eight hundred three of the correction law,~~ 25 ~~and~~

26 ~~(ii) in the case of a felony offense defined in subdivision five of~~ 27 ~~section 410.91 of this chapter, or section 165.10, 165.11, 190.79 or~~ 28 ~~190.80 of the penal law, any statement of or submitted by the victim, as~~ 29 ~~defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section 380.50 of this~~ 30 ~~chapter] except sealed cases defined in section 160.50 or 160.55 of this~~ 31 chapter.

32 (b) Upon completion of such a proceeding, the court shall consider and 33 make findings of fact with respect to whether:

34 (i) the defendant is an eligible defendant as defined in subdivision
35 one of section 216.00 of this article;

36 (ii) [~~the defendant has a history of alcohol or substance use,~~
37 ~~(iii) such alcohol or substance use]~~ the defendant's functional
38 impairment is likely a contributing factor to [~~the defendant's criminal~~ 39 ~~behavior]~~ their current or future involvement in the criminal legal 40 system;

41 [~~(iv)~~] (iii) the defendant's participation in judicial diversion could 42 effectively address such [~~use~~] functional impairment; and

43 [~~(v) institutional confinement of the defendant is or may not be~~ 44 ~~necessary for the protection of the public]~~ (iv) the defendant's access 45 to treatment through this article would benefit the public and the 46 defendant.

47 4. (a) When an authorized court determines, pursuant to paragraph (b) 48 of subdivision three of this section, that an eligible defendant should 49 be offered [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment, or when the parties and 50 the court agree to [~~an eligible defendant's participation in alcohol or~~ 51 ~~substance use~~] treatment, an eligible defendant [~~may~~] shall be allowed 52 to participate in the judicial diversion program offered by this arti-
53 cle. [~~Prior to the court's issuing an order granting judicial diver-~~
54 ~~sion, the eligible defendant shall be required to enter a plea of guilty~~
55 ~~to the charge or charges, provided, however, that no such guilty plea~~ 56 ~~shall be required when:~~

~~(a) the people and the court consent to the entry of such an order without a plea of guilty; or~~
~~(b) based on a finding of exceptional circumstances, the court determines that a plea of guilty shall not be required. For purposes of this subdivision, exceptional circumstances exist when, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the case, the entry of a plea of guilty is likely to result in severe collateral consequences.]~~

(b) Eligible defendants shall not be required to submit a plea of guilty to participate in judicial diversion.

(c) Prior participation in treatment or court-mandated treatment shall not preclude future treatment participation.

(d) Eligible defendants shall not be precluded from diversion because of a lack of resources in the community.

(e) An eligible defendant shall not be precluded from diversion because of their gender identity.

5. The [~~defendant~~] participant shall agree on the record or in writing to abide by the [~~release~~] judicial diversion program conditions set by the court, which[, ~~shall~~] may include: [~~participation in a specified period of alcohol or substance use treatment at a specified program or programs identified by the court, which may include periods of detoxification residential or outpatient treatment, or both, as determined after taking into account the views of the health care professional who conducted the alcohol and substance use evaluation and any health care professionals responsible for providing such treatment or monitoring the defendant's progress in such treatment; and may include: (i)~~]

(a) participation in the treatment plan;

(b) periodic court appearances, which, upon consent of the participant, may [~~include periodic urinalysis; (ii)~~] be an accessible audio or video appearance. When scheduling court appearances and determining the type of appearance required, the court shall consider the participant's treatment progress and shall attempt to avoid undue hardship, including but not limited to, treatment interruptions, the cost of transportation, mobility issues, childcare and employment disruptions. Upon application by defense counsel and with the consent of the participant, the court shall consider waiving the appearance of the participant;

(c) periodic drug screening as needed, when recommended by the treatment provider as part of a participant's treatment plan. Drug screening methods shall only include oral swabs, sweat patches, or non-observed urinalysis and shall comport with the office of addiction services and supports' guidance on toxicology use;

(d) a requirement that the [~~defendant~~] participant refrain from engaging in criminal behaviors[, ~~(iii) if the defendant needs treatment for opioid use, that he or she~~].

5-a. (a) record of attendance and relevant barriers to attendance;

(b) treatment plan and any recommended changes to the plan during participation in judicial diversion;

(c) drug toxicology results, when part of the treatment plan; and

(d) relevant updates regarding engagement in the treatment plan.

7 drug during the course of medically prescribed [~~drug~~] treatments[~~-~~]; and

8 (c) No court shall penalize or sanction a participant for periods of 9 voluntary hospitalization, respite care, or other forms of supportive 10 care.

11 5-c. Every effort should be made to maximize the use of certified
12 peers in every stage of the judicial diversion process.

13 5-d. Upon request by the defense, the court shall allow participants 14 to consult a different mental health care professional for a second
15 opinion and propose an alternative treatment plan. Any alternative opin-16 ion or alternative treatment plan shall be considered by the court when 17 determining the treatment plan.

18 6. Upon [~~an eligible defendant's~~] a participant's agreement to abide 19 by the conditions set by the court, the court shall issue a securing 20 order providing for bail or release on the [~~defendant's~~] participant's 21 own recognizance and conditioning any release upon the agreed upon 22 conditions pursuant to article five hundred ten of this chapter. The 23 period of [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment shall begin as specified
24 by the court and as soon as practicable after the [~~defendant's~~] partic-
25 ipant's release, taking into account the availability of treatment, so
26 as to facilitate early intervention with respect to the [~~defendant's~~ 27 ~~substance use or condition~~] participant's functional impairment and the 28 effectiveness of the treatment program. In the event that a treatment 29 program is not immediately available or becomes unavailable during the 30 course of the [~~defendant's participation~~] participant's involvement in 31 the judicial diversion program, the court may release the [~~defendant~~
32 participant] pursuant to the securing order.

33 7. When participating in judicial diversion treatment pursuant to this 34 article, any resident of this state who is covered under a private 35 health insurance policy or contract issued for delivery in this state
36 pursuant to article thirty-two, forty-three or forty-seven of the insur-
37 ance law or article forty-four of the public health law, or who is 38 covered by a self-funded plan which provides coverage for the diagnosis
39 and treatment of [~~chemical abuse and chemical dependence~~] functional 40 impairment however defined in such policy; shall first seek reimburse-
41 ment for such treatment in accordance with the provisions of such policy
42 or contract. The court in its discretion may order the participant to 43 apply for public insurance if they so qualify. The court shall not deny 44 access to treatment for inability to pay.

45 8. (a) During the period of a [~~defendant's participation~~] partic-
46 ipant's involvement in the judicial diversion program, the treatment
47 court shall retain jurisdiction of the [~~defendant~~] participant,
48 provided, however, that the court [~~may~~] shall allow such [~~defendant~~]
49 participant to (i) reside in another jurisdiction, [~~or~~] and/or (ii)
50 participate in [~~alcohol and substance use~~] treatment and other programs 51 in the jurisdiction where the [~~defendant~~] participant resides or in any 52 other jurisdiction, while participating in a judicial diversion program
53 under conditions set by the court and agreed to by the [~~defendant~~]
54 participant pursuant to subdivisions five and six of this section. The 55 court may transfer the participant's case to the judicial diversion
56 court in the county in which the participant resides pursuant to subdivision five of section 170.15 of this part, subdivision four of section 180.20 of this part, or section 230.21 of this part to ensure continuity of treatment.

(b) The court may require the [defendant] participant to appear in court ~~[at any time]~~ or, upon the request of the participant, make audio or video appearances pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision five of this section to enable the court to [monitor] promote the [defendant's] participant's progress in ~~[alcohol or substance use]~~ treatment. The court shall provide notice, reasonable under the circumstances, to the people, the treatment provider, the [defendant] participant and the [defendant's] participant's counsel whenever it orders or otherwise requires the appearance of the ~~[defendant in]~~ participation for court appearances. Failure to appear as required without reasonable cause therefor shall constitute a violation of the conditions of the court's agreement with the [defendant] participant.

9. (a) If at any time during the ~~[defendant's participation]~~ participant's engagement in the judicial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the [defendant] participant has violated a ~~[release]~~ program condition in an important respect or has willfully failed to appear before the court as requested, the court except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this chapter regarding a failure to appear, shall direct the [defendant] participant to appear ~~[or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay, provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who requires treatment for opioid use be deemed to have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice]~~ for a hearing on the violation pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision with at least forty-eight hours notice to the participant or the participant's counsel, unless notice is waived by the participant. The court may not modify the participant's securing order until such time as the hearing's conclusion. The relevant provisions of section 530.60 of this chapter relating to issuance of securing orders shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

(b) In determining whether a [defendant] participant violated a condition of ~~[his or her release under]~~ the judicial diversion program in an important respect or willfully failed to appear in court, the court [may] shall conduct a ~~[summary]~~ hearing consistent with due process ~~[and sufficient]~~ to satisfy the court that the [defendant] participant has, in fact, violated the condition or willfully failed to appear.

(i) The people shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the participant has violated a condition of the judicial diversion program in an important respect or has willfully failed to appear. The participant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on their own behalf.

(ii) At the request of the participant or the participant's counsel, the court may conduct proceedings off the record for portions of the proceedings that will likely result in adverse collateral consequences, including immigration consequences. In the alternative, the court shall seal portions of the proceeding that may result in such consequences.

(c) If the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the [defendant] participant has violated a program condition ~~[of his or her]~~

~~release under the judicial diversion program, the~~ in an important respect or willfully failed to appear, the court shall respond by using a system of graduated and appropriate responses designed to address such inappropriate behaviors and facilitate, where possible, successful completion of the treatment program. The court may permit the participant to continue their treatment mandate as previously ordered; modify the ~~[conditions thereof, reconsider the order of recognizance or bail pursuant to subdivision two of section 510.30 of this chapter,]~~ treatment plan according to the recommendation of the treatment provider; or terminate the ~~[defendant's]~~ participant's participation in the judicial diversion program~~, and when applicable proceed with the defendant's sentencing in accordance with the agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account]~~ if no other treatment option is available. If the court finds a reasonable explanation or mitigation for any alleged violation or alleged willful failure to appear, the securing order shall not be modified. The court shall consider:

(i) the length of time the [defendant] participant has spent in [residential] treatment and how best to continue treatment [while the defendant is serving that sentence. In determining what action to take for a violation of a release condition, the court shall consider];

(ii) all relevant circumstances, including the views of the prosecutor, the defense and the [alcohol or substance use] participant's interest in continuing treatment [provider, and the extent to which persons who ultimately successfully complete a drug treatment regimen sometimes] or the program;

(iii) the role of relapse [by not abstaining from alcohol or substance use or by failing to comply fully with all requirements imposed by a treatment program. The court shall also consider using a system of graduated and appropriate responses or sanctions designed to address such inappropriate behaviors, protect public safety and facilitate, where possible, successful completion of the alcohol or substance use treatment program] in recovery and treatment; and

(iv) any other mitigating factors that may have impacted the alleged violation or willful failure to appear.

(d) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed ~~[as preventing a court from terminating a defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program for violating a release condition when such a termination is necessary to preserve public safety. Nor shall anything in this subdivision be construed]~~ as precluding the prosecution of a [defendant] participant for the commission of a different offense while participating in the judicial diversion program.

(e) A [defendant] participant may at any time advise the court that ~~[he or she wishes]~~ they wish to terminate participation in the judicial diversion program, at which time the court shall ~~[proceed with the case and, where applicable, shall impose sentence in accordance with the plea agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the court may impose any sentence authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance with the plea agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed on a felony drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision two of section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account the length of time the defendant spent in residential treatment and how~~

~~best to continue treatment while the defendant is serving that sentence]~~
transfer the case back to the appropriate trial part.

10. Upon the court's determination that the [~~defendant~~] participant has successfully completed the required period of [~~alcohol or substance use~~] treatment and has otherwise satisfied the conditions required for successful completion of the judicial diversion program, the court shall ~~[comply with the terms and conditions it set for final disposition when it accepted the defendant's agreement to participate in the judicial diversion program. Such disposition may include, but is not limited to:~~ ~~(a) requiring the defendant to undergo a period of interim probation supervision and, upon the defendant's successful completion of the interim probation supervision term, notwithstanding the provision of any other law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea and dismissing the indictment; or (b) requiring the defendant to undergo a period of interim probation supervision and, upon successful completion of the interim probation supervision term, notwithstanding the provision of any other law, permitting the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea, enter a guilty plea to a misdemeanor offense and sentencing the defendant as promised in the plea agreement, which may include a period of probation supervision pursuant to section 65.00 of the penal law; or (c) allowing the defendant to withdraw his or her guilty plea and dismissing]~~ dismiss the indictment or superior court information, felony complaint, misdemeanor complaint, information, simplified information, or prosecutor's information and seal the case pursuant to section 160.50 of this chapter. Participants who successfully complete judicial diversion shall also be eligible to apply for sealing of prior convictions pursuant to section 160.58 of this chapter. Upon successful completion of judicial diversion, the court shall notify the participant of their potential eligibility for sealing pursuant to subdivision two of section 160.58 of this chapter. No participant shall be required or permitted to waive eligibility for sealing as a condition of participation in judicial diversion.
