reports, returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such 2 action or proceeding, in any of which events the court may require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said reports, returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action or 5 proceeding and no more. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or to the taxpayer's duly authorized repre-7 sentative of a certified copy of any return or report filed in connection with his or her tax or to prohibit the publication of statis-9 tics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular 10 reports or returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the 11 corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city of the 12 report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding 13 14 under this chapter has been recommended by the commissioner of finance 15 or the corporation counsel or has been instituted, or the inspection of the reports or returns required under this chapter by the duly desig-16 17 nated officers or employees of the city for purposes of an audit under this chapter or an audit authorized by the enacting of this chapter, or18 19 the inspection of the reports or returns of any taxpayer by the independent budget office of the city of New York, or the entity designated 20 21 to be the evaluator pursuant to section 11-2901 of this title, for purposes of a tax expenditure evaluation authorized by such section. Reports and returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter 23 24 until the commissioner of finance orders them to be destroyed.

- § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 11-688 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 808 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. Except in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the commissioner of finance, the department of finance of the city, any officer or employee of the department of finance of the city, the tax appeals tribunal, any commissioner or employee of such tribunal, any person who, pursuant to this section, is permitted to inspect any report or return, or to whom any information contained in any report or return is furnished, any person engaged or retained by such department on an independent contract basis, or any person who in any manner may acquire knowledge of the contents of a report filed pursuant to this chapter, to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of income or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return, under this chapter. The officers charged with the custody of such reports and returns shall not be required to produce any them or evidence of anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the city in an action or proceeding involving the collection of a tax due under this chapter to which the city is a party or a claimant, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter when the reports, returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, in any of which events the court may require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said reports or returns or of facts shown thereby as are pertinent to the action or proceeding, and no more. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or its duly authorized representative of a copy of any report filed by it, nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel or other legal representatives of the city of the 56 report or return of any taxpayer which shall bring action to set aside
