Section 1265. Affordable independent senior housing assistance program.

- § 1265. Affordable independent senior housing assistance program. 1. Establishment. The commissioner, in conjunction with the commissioner of health, shall develop an affordable independent senior housing assistance program, which shall provide grants within amounts appropriated or 10 otherwise available therefor to affordable independent senior housing properties to establish and operate resident assistance programs. The grants shall be distributed by the commissioner of health.
- 2. Definitions. For purposes of this article, the following terms 14 shall have the following meanings: (a) "affordable independent senior housing property" shall mean apartment buildings or apartment complexes 15 occupied by individuals over sixty years of age, who live independently and at least eighty percent of whom have a total household income that does not exceed sixty percent of the area median income; and
- (b) "resident assistance" shall mean support offered to residents of 20 affordable independent senior housing properties to help promote healthy living by extending independence and improving quality of life.
- 22 3. Assistance. Resident assistance shall be determined by the commis-2.3 sioner of health; provided however, that the provision of such assist-
