- 7. (a) The department shall establish a neurodegenerative with behaviors enhanced special needs assisted living residence program to serve residents of certified assisted living residences with neurodegenerative diseases (such as Alzheimer's dementia, Lewy body dementia, frontal lobe 8 dementia, and Parkinson's disease) with behavior disturbances, as defined by the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders or 10 the international classifications of diseases. To participate in the 11 program, assisted living operators shall obtain certification as both an 12 enhanced assisted living residence and special needs assisted living 13 residence.
- (i) Each program will have physician oversight and supervision under 14 15 contract with the site; provide nursing services directly or under 16 contract; and be limited to ten residential beds per program, and in 17 addition may include two respite beds.
- 18 (ii) There shall be no more than five residents per site who, upon admission, are in need of twenty-four-hour skilled nursing care or 19 medical care which would otherwise require placement in a hospital or 21 nursing home.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
