STATE OF NEW YORK

2300

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 19, 2023

Introduced by Sen. MAYER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to conveyances of certain real property involving limited liability companies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 333 of the real property law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-g to read as follows:

1-g. A recording officer shall not record or accept for recording any conveyance of real property containing one- to four-family dwelling units when the grantor or grantee of the deed is a limited liability company, unless it is accompanied by a document which identifies the names and business addresses of all members, managers, and any other authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company and the names and business addresses or, if none, the business addresses of all shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of any limited liability company or other business entity that are to be the members, managers or authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company. The identification of such names and addresses shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to article six of the public officers law. If any such member, manager or authorized person of the limited liability company is itself a limited liability company or other business entity, the names and addresses of the shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of the limited liability company or other business entity shall also be disclosed until full disclosure of ultimate ownership by natural persons is achieved. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "members", "managers", "authorized person", "limited liability company" and "other business entity" shall have the same meaning as those terms are defined in section one hundred two of the limited liability company law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04655-01-3

§ 2. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 7-609 to read as follows:

§ 7-609 Real property deed transfer involving limited liability companies. The office of the register of the city of New York or county clerk shall not record or accept for recording any conveyance of real property containing one- to four-family dwelling units when the grantor or grantee of the deed is a limited liability company, unless it is accompanied by a document which identifies the names and business addresses of all members, managers, and any other authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company and the names and business addresses or, if none, the business addresses of all shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of any limited liability company or other business entity that are to be the members, managers or authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company. The identification of such names and addresses shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to article six of the public officers law. If any such member, manager or authorized person of the limited liability company is itself a limited liability company or other business entity, the names and addresses of the shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of the limited liability company or other business entity shall also be disclosed until full disclosure of ultimate ownership by natural persons is achieved. For purposes of this section, the terms "members", "managers", "authorized person", "limited liability company" and "other business entity" shall have the same meaning as those terms are defined in section one hundred two of the limited liability company law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.