AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to minimum wage reimbursement credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 38 of the tax law, as added by section 1 of part EE
2 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2013, is renumbered section 48 and subdivisions (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

3 (b) An eligible employer is a corporation (including a New York S 4 corporation), a sole proprietorship, a limited liability company or a 5 partnership. An eligible employee is an individual who is (i) employed
6 by an eligible employer in New York state, (ii) paid at the minimum wage 7 rate as defined in article nineteen of the labor law during the taxable 8 year by the eligible employer, (iii) between the ages of sixteen and 9 nineteen during the period in which he or she is paid at such minimum 10 wage rate by the eligible employer, and (iv) a student during the period 11 in which he or she is paid at such minimum wage rate by the taxpayer.
12 For taxable years beginning on and after January first, two thousand 13 twenty-three, an eligible employee is an individual who is (i) employed 14 by an eligible employer in New York state, (ii) paid at a rate that does 15 not exceed the minimum wage rate as defined in article nineteen of the 16 labor law plus fifty cents during the taxable year by the eligible 17 employer, (iii) between the ages of sixteen and nineteen during the 18 period in which he or she is paid at such rate that does not exceed such 19 minimum wage rate plus fifty cents by the eligible employer, and (iv) a 20 student during the period in which he or she is paid at such rate that 21 does not exceed such minimum wage rate plus fifty cents by the taxpayer.

(c) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand fourteen and before January first, two thousand fifteen, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours worked during the taxable year by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in article nineteen of the labor law and ~~[seventy-five]~~ seventy-five cents. For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand fifteen and before January first, two thousand sixteen, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at such minimum wage rate and one dollar and thirty-one cents. For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand sixteen and before January first, two thousand nineteen, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at such minimum wage rate and one dollar and thirty-five cents. For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-three and before January first, two thousand twenty-six, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at a rate that does not exceed such minimum wage rate plus fifty cents and one dollar and thirty-five cents. Provided, however, if the federal minimum wage established by federal law pursuant to 29 U.S.C. section 206 or its successors is increased above eighty-five percent of the minimum wage in article nineteen of the labor law, the dollar amounts in this subdivision shall be reduced to the difference between the minimum wage in article nineteen of the labor law and the federal minimum wage. Such reduction would take effect on the date that employers are required to pay such federal minimum wage.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2023.
