AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to declaring Asian Lunar New Year a school holiday

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 3604 of the education law, as 2 amended by chapter 605 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 8. No school shall be in session on a Saturday, the first day of the 5 second lunar month after the winter solstice in the preceding calendar year, known as Asian Lunar New Year, unless such day falls on a Sunday, 7 in which case the school shall not be in session on the Monday thereafter, or a legal holiday, except general election day, Washington's birthday and Lincoln's birthday, and except that driver education classes may 10 be conducted on a Saturday. A deficiency not exceeding four days during 11 any school year caused by teachers' attendance upon conferences held by 12 superintendents of schools of city school districts or other school 13 districts employing superintendents of schools shall be excused by the commissioner, notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation 15 to the contrary, a school district may elect to schedule such conference days in the last two weeks of August, subject to collective bargaining 16 requirements pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, and 17 such days shall be counted towards the required one hundred eighty days 18 19 of session, provided however, that such scheduling shall not alter the 20 obligation of the school district to provide transportation to students in non-public elementary and secondary schools or charter schools. At least two such conference days during such school year shall be dedi-23 cated to staff attendance upon conferences providing staff development relating to implementation of the new high learning standards and 2 assessments, as adopted by the board of regents. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, school districts may elect to use one or more of such allowable conference days 5 in units of not less than one hour each to provide staff development activities relating to implementation of the new high learning standards 7 and assessments. A district making such election may provide such staff development on any day during which sessions are allowed and apply such 9 units to satisfy a deficiency in the length of one or more daily 10 sessions of instruction for pupils as specified in regulations of the 11 commissioner. The commissioner shall assure that such conference days 12 include appropriate school violence prevention and intervention train-13 ing, and may require that up to one such conference day be dedicated for 14 such purpose.

§ 2. Subdivision 2-a of section 3635 of the education law, as amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

16 17 2-a. The superintendent of each city school district, in a city having a population in excess of one million, shall prepare a public school 18 calendar and shall notify officials of nonpublic schools to which trans-19 portation has been requested not later than the first day of June in 20 21 each year, of the days on which the public schools will be in session in 22 the following school year. Such school district which provides transpor-23 tation to nonpublic schools shall provide such transportation for the 24 same number of days as the public schools are open but shall not provide 25 transportation services for more than one hundred eighty days. Officials of each nonpublic school to which transportation is provided by a 26 27 city school district of a city having a population in excess of one 28 million may notify such district, not later than the first day of July each school year, of a maximum of five days, exclusive of Saturdays, 29 30 Sundays or legal holidays upon which public schools are required to be 31 closed, on which the public schools are scheduled to be closed, except 32 that in any year in which the first or last day of Passover and Easter 33 Sunday are separated by more than seven days, such officials may notify the district of a maximum of ten days, but such school district will be 34 35 required to provide for transportation to such nonpublic school provided 36 that such five or ten additional days, whichever is applicable, are 37 limited to the following: the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after Labor Day, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, the week in which public schools are closed for spring recess, December twenty-fourth and the 39 week between Christmas day and New Year's day, the Tuesday, Wednesday, 40 Thursday and Friday after the observance of Washington's birthday, the 41 42 first day of the second lunar month after the winter solstice in the 43 preceding calendar year, known as Asian Lunar New Year, and, in the 44 boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens only, Anniversary Day as designated in 45 section twenty-five hundred eighty-six of this chapter.

§ 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2024.
