Introduced by Sen. FELDER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law and the education law, in relation to mandatory continuing education for teachers relating to mental health issues and trauma informed care

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 7.23 of the mental hygiene law is amended by adding
2 a new subdivision (d) to read as follows:

3 (d) The commissioner, in consultation with the department of health
4 and the commissioner of the department of education, shall develop
5 course materials to be offered as part of the required continuing teach-
6 er and leader education requirements pursuant to paragraph a of subdivi-
7 sion two of section three thousand six-a of the education law. Such 8 training shall include, but not be limited to:

9 1. continuing education courses;

10 2. programs and activities related to mental health;

11 3. trauma informed care, intervention and practices;

12 4. adverse childhood experiences and social emotional learning;

13 5. behavioral health disorders;

14 6. best practices for improving the overall learning environment;

15 7. safe de-escalation of crisis situations;

16 8. identifying signs and symptoms, including early stages of mental 17 illness and behavioral health issues; and

18 9. the use of evidence based training programs including, but not 19 limited to, mental health first aid or core elements of such programs to 20 the extent practicable.

21 § 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 2 of section 3006-a of the education
22 law, as added by section 2 of subpart C of part EE of chapter 56 of the 23 laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
