AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to authorizing the creation of small business tax-deferred savings accounts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 208 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subparagraph 28 to read as follows:

(28) any deposit made by a small business as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law into a small business tax-deferred savings account maintained by a banking organization as defined in subdivision eleven of section two of the banking law and established for the purposes of improving the facilities of such business or for procurement of machinery or equipment or any interest earned on any small business tax-deferred savings account.

§ 2. Subdivision 9 of section 208 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c-4) to read as follows:

(c-4) Entire net income shall include any withdrawal exclusive of interest income made by a small business as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law from a small business tax-deferred savings account maintained by a banking organization as defined in subdivision eleven of section two of the banking law and established for the purposes of improving the facilities of such business or for procurement of machinery or equipment and an additional ten percent of any withdrawals exclusive of interest income from the small business tax-deferred savings account not used for improving the facilities of such business or for procurement of machinery or equipment.

§ 3. Subsection (b) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph 44 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
