Introduced by Sen. COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to cellular telephone applications

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 349-g to read as follows:

§ 349-g. Cellular applications; protection. 1. As used in this section:

(a) "Cellular telephone service supplier" means a business entity which provides retail cellular telephone service within New York state.

(b) "Cellular telephone" means a cellular mobile radio telephone or other radio telephone not requiring an access line for service.

(c) "Cellular telephone subscriber" means any person enrolled in a cellular telephone service subscriber plan whether or not such subscriber's cellular telephone services are active or suspended.

2. Cellular telephone subscribers who purchase cellular applications, games and/or ringtones from a cellular telephone service supplier shall be allowed to transfer such previously purchased products to cellular telephones which have been upgraded and/or returned to the cellular telephone service provider due to a defect or for any other reason. Where the cellular telephone is covered under a policy for loss and/or theft the cellular telephone subscriber shall be entitled to have all previously purchased applications, games and/or ringtones installed in their new cellular telephone or shall have the option of receiving a credit to their account for the purchase amount.

3. The provisions of subdivision two of this section shall only be applicable to cellular telephone subscribers who remain with the same cellular telephone service provider and shall not apply to cellular telephone subscribers who switch cellular telephone service providers,
