2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 20, 2023

Introduced by Sen. STAVISKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the business corporation law, the partnership law and the limited liability company law, in relation to certified public accountants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1503 of the business corporation law is amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

3 (h) Any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy, as such practice is defined under article one hundred forty-nine of the education law shall be required to 7 show (1) that a simple majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms 8 of financial interests and voting rights held by the firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public accountancy in some 9 10 state, and (2) that all shareholders of a professional service corpo-11 ration whose principal place of business is in this state, and who are 12 engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state, hold a valid license issued under section seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this paragraph, "financial interest" 14 means capital stock, capital accounts, capital contributions, capital 15 interest, or interest in undistributed earnings of a business entity. 16 17 Although firms registered with the education department may include non-licensee owners, a registered firm and its owners must comply with 19 rules promulgated by the state board of regents. Notwithstanding the 20 foregoing, a firm incorporated under this section may not have non-licensee owners if the firm's name includes the words "certified public 22 accountant, or "certified public accountants," or the abbreviations

"CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee owner of a firm that is incorporated under this section shall be a natural person who actively participates in the business of the firm or its affiliated entities. For purposes of this subdivision, "actively participate" means to provide services to clients or to otherwise individually take part in the day-to-day business or management of the firm or an affiliated entity. Such a firm shall have attached to its certificate of incorporation a certificate or certificates demonstrating the firm's compliance with this paragraph, in lieu of the certificate or certificates required by subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of this section.

- § 2. Section 1507 of the business corporation law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:
- (c) Any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article may issue shares to individuals who are authorized by law to practice in this state the profession which such corporation is authorized to practice or who will engage in the practice of such profession in such corporation within thirty days of the date such shares are issued and may also issue shares to employees of the corporation not licensed as certified public accountants, provided that:
- (i) at least a simple majority of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation are owned by certified public accountants,
- (ii) at least a simple majority of the directors are certified public accountants,
- (iii) at least a simple majority of the officers are certified public accountants,
- (iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are certified public accountants. No shareholder of a professional service corporation established pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article shall enter into a voting trust agreement, proxy or any other type of agreement vesting in another person, the authority to exercise voting power of any or all of his or her shares. All agreements made or proxies granted in violation of this section shall be void.
- § 3. Section 1508 of the business corporation law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:
 - (c) The directors and officers of any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article may include individuals who are not licensed to practice public accountancy in any state, provided however that at least a simple majority of the directors, at least a simple majority of the officers and the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are authorized by law to practice in any state the profession which such corporation is authorized to practice, and are either shareholders of such corporation or engaged in the practice of their professions in such corporation.
- 49 § 4. Section 1509 of the business corporation law, as amended by chap-50 ter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- 51 § 1509. Disqualification of shareholders, directors, officers and employees.
 - If any shareholder, director, officer or employee of a professional service corporation, including a design professional service corporation, who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to practice his or her profession within this state, he or she shall sever all employment with, and financial interests (other than interests as a creditor) in, such corporation forthwith or as otherwise provided in section 1510 of this article. All provisions of law regulating the rendering of professional services by a 5 person elected or appointed to a public office shall be applicable to a shareholder, director, officer and employee of such corporation in the 7 same manner and to the same extent as if fully set forth herein. Such legal disqualification to practice his or her profession within this 9 state shall be deemed to constitute an irrevocable offer by the disqual-10 ified shareholder to sell his or her shares to the corporation, pursuant 11 the provisions of section 1510 of this article or of the certificate 12 of incorporation, by-laws or agreement among the corporation and all shareholders, whichever is applicable. Compliance with the terms of such 13 14 offer shall be specifically enforceable in the courts of this state. A 15 professional service corporation's failure to enforce compliance with 16 this provision shall constitute a ground for forfeiture of its certif-17 icate of incorporation and its dissolution.

§ 5. Paragraph (a) of section 1511 of the business corporation law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended and a new paragraph (c) is added to read as follows:

(a) No shareholder of a professional service corporation [ex], including a design professional service corporation, may sell or transfer his or her shares in such corporation except to another individual who eligible to have shares issued to him or her by such corporation or except in trust to another individual who would be eligible to receive shares if he or she were employed by the corporation. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the transfer of shares by operation of law or by court decree. No transferee of shares by operation law or court decree may vote the shares for any purpose whatsoever except with respect to corporate action under sections 909 and 1001 of this chapter. The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply, however, where such transferee would be eligible to have shares issued to him or her if he or she were an employee of the corporation and, there are other shareholders, a majority of such other shareholders shall fail to redeem the shares so transferred, pursuant to section 1510 of this article, within sixty days of receiving written notice of transfer. Any sale or transfer, except by operation of law or court decree or except for a corporation having only one shareholder, may be made only after the same shall have been approved by the board of directors, or at a shareholders' meeting specially called for such purpose by such proportion, not less than a majority, of the outstanding shares as may be provided in the certificate of incorporation or in the by-laws of such professional service corporation. At such shareholders' meeting the shares held by the shareholder proposing to sell or transfer his or her shares may not be voted or counted for any purpose, unless all shareholders consent that such shares be voted or counted. The certificate of incorporation or the by-laws of the professional service corporation, or the professional service corporation and the shareholders by private agreement, may provide, in lieu of or in addition to the foregoing provisions, for the alienation of shares and may require the redemption or purchase of such shares by such corporation at prices and in a manner specifically set forth therein. The existence of the restrictions on the sale or transfer of shares, as contained in this article and, if applicable, in the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, stock purchase or stock redemption agreement, shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of every certificate for shares issued by a professional service

- (c) A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article, shall purchase or redeem the shares of a non-licensed professional shareholder in the case of his or her termination of employment within thirty days after such termination. A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article, shall not be required to purchase or redeem the shares of a terminated non-licensed professional shareholder if such shares, within thirty days after such termination, are sold or transferred to another employee of the corporation pursuant to this article.
- 15 § 6. Section 1514 of the business corporation law is amended by adding 16 a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:
 - (c) Each firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article shall, at least once every three years on or before the date prescribed by the licensing authority, furnish a statement to the licensing authority listing the names and residence addresses of each shareholder, director and officer of such corporation and certify as the date of certification and at all times over the entire three year period that:
 - (i) at least a simple majority of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation are and were owned by certified public accountants,
 - (ii) at least a simple majority of the directors are and were certified public accountants,
 - (iii) at least a simple majority of the officers are and were certified public accountants,
 - (iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are and were certified public accountants.
- 34 The statement shall be signed by the president or any certified public accountant vice-president and attested to by the secretary or any assistant secretary of the corporation.
 - § 7. Paragraph (d) of section 1525 of the business corporation law, as added by chapter 505 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:
 - (d) "Foreign professional service corporation" means a professional service corporation, whether or not denominated as such, organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than this state, all of the shareholders, directors and officers of which are authorized and licensed to practice the profession for which such corporation is licensed to do business; except that all shareholders, directors and officers of a foreign professional service corporation which provides health services in this state shall be licensed in this state. A foreign professional service corporation formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy as a firm, as such practice is defined under article one hundred forty-nine of the education law, or equivalent state law, shall be required to show (1) that a simple majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms of financial interests and voting rights held by the firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public accountancy in some state, and (2) that all shareholders of a foreign professional service corporation whose principal place of business is in this state, and who are engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state, hold a valid license issued under section seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this paragraph, "financial interest" means capital stock, capital accounts, capital contributions, capital interest, or interest in undistributed earnings 3 of a business entity. Although firms registered with the education 4 5 department may include non-licensee owners, a registered firm and its owners must comply with rules promulgated by the state board of regents. 7 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a firm registered with the education 8 department may not have non-licensee owners if the firm's name includes 9 the words "certified public accountant," or "certified public account-10 ants," or the abbreviations "CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee owner of a firm that is operating under this section shall be a natural person 11 12 who actively participates in the business of the firm or its affiliated entities, provided each beneficial owner of an equity interest in such 13 14 entity is a natural person who actively participates in the business 15 conducted by the firm or its affiliated entities. For purposes of this 16 paragraph, "actively participate" means to provide services to clients 17 or to otherwise individually take part in the day-to-day business or management of the firm or an affiliated entity. 18 19

With 27 respect to a foreign professional service limited liability company 28 which provides creative arts therapy services as such services are 29 defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such foreign 30 professional service limited liability company must be licensed pursuant 31 to article 163 of the education law to practice creative arts therapy in 32 this state. With respect to a foreign professional service limited 33 liability company which provides marriage and family therapy services as 34 such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such foreign professional service limited liability company 35 36 must be licensed pursuant to article 163 of the education law to prac-37 tice marriage and family therapy in this state. With respect to a foreign professional service limited liability company which provides 39 mental health counseling services as such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such foreign professional 40 service limited liability company must be licensed pursuant to article 41 42 163 of the education law to practice mental health counseling in this 43 state. With respect to a foreign professional service limited liability 44 company which provides psychoanalysis services as such services are defined in article 163 of the education law, each member of such foreign 45 46 professional service limited liability company must be licensed pursuant 47 to article 163 of the education law to practice psychoanalysis in this 48 state. With respect to a foreign professional service limited liability 49 company which provides applied behavior analysis services as such services are defined in article 167 of the education law, each member of 50 such foreign professional service limited liability company must be 51 licensed or certified pursuant to article 167 of the education law to 52 53 practice applied behavior analysis in this state. A foreign professional service limited liability company formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy as a firm, as such practice is defined under 55 article 149 of the education law shall be required to show (1) that a 56 simple majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms of financial interests and voting rights held by the firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public accountancy in some state, and (2) that all members of a foreign limited professional service limited 5 liability company, whose principal place of business is in this state, and who are engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state, 7 hold a valid license issued under section seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this subdivision, "financial inter-9 est" means capital stock, capital accounts, capital contributions, capi-10 tal interest, or interest in undistributed earnings of a business enti-11 ty. Although firms registered with the education department may include 12 non-licensee owners, a registered firm and its owners must comply with rules promulgated by the state board of regents. Notwithstanding the 13 14 foregoing, a firm registered with the education department may not have 15 non-licensee owners if the firm's name includes the words "certified public accountant, " or "certified public accountants, " or the abbrevi-16 17 ations "CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee owner of a firm that is registered under this section shall be (1) a natural person who actively 18 participates in the business of the firm or its affiliated entities, or 19 20 (2) an entity, including, but not limited to, a partnership or professional corporation, provided each beneficial owner of an equity interest 21 22 in such entity is a natural person who actively participates in the 23 business conducted by the firm or its affiliated entities. For purposes of this subdivision, "actively participate" means to provide services to 24 25 clients or to otherwise individually take part in the day-to-day busi-26 ness or management of the firm or an affiliated entity. 27

§ 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if a firm which is registered with the education department to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy has one or more non-licensee owners, each such non-licensee owner of the firm whose principal place of business is in the state of New York shall pay a fee of nine hundred dollars to the department of education on a triennial basis.

§ 13. This act shall take effect immediately.
