AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to providing a judicial remedy to resolve complaints related to utility bills

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 66 of the public service law, as 2 amended by chapter 134 of the laws of 1921, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 5. Examine all persons, corporations and municipalities under its 5 supervision and keep informed as to the methods, practices, regulations 6 and property employed by them in the transaction of their business.
7 Whenever the commission shall be of opinion, after a hearing had upon 8 its own motion or upon complaint, that the rates, charges or classifica-9 tions or the acts or regulations of any such person, corporation or 10 municipality are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory or unduly 11 preferential or in anywise in violation of any provision of law, the 12 commission shall determine and prescribe in the manner provided by and 13 subject to the provisions of section seventy-two of this [~~chapter~~ arti-
14 cle the just and reasonable rates, charges and classifications thereaft-15 er to be in force for the service to be furnished notwithstanding that a 16 higher or lower rate or charge has heretofore been prescribed by general 17 or special statute, contract, grant, franchise condition, consent or 18 other agreement, and the just and reasonable acts and regulations to be 19 done and observed; and whenever the commission shall be of opinion, 20 after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, that the 21 property, equipment or appliances of any such person, corporation or 22 municipality are unsafe, inefficient or inadequate, the commission shall 23 determine and prescribe the safe, efficient and adequate property,
24 equipment and appliances thereafter to be used, maintained and operated
