22 essential elements of any such crime for which a sentence to a term of 23 imprisonment in excess of one year or a sentence of death was authorized 24 and is authorized in this state irrespective of whether such sentence 25 was imposed.

26 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 120.80 to read 27 as follows:

28 § 120.80 Stalking a police officer or peace officer.

29 A person is guilty of stalking a police officer or peace officer when:

30 1. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, engages in 31 a course of conduct directed at a specific police officer, peace officer
32 or a person who he or she knows or reasonably should know is a member of 33 such officer's immediate family, and knows or reasonably should know 34 that such conduct is likely to cause reasonable fear of material harm to 35 the physical health, safety or property of such officer or member of 36 such officer's immediate family;

37 2. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, engages in
38 a course of conduct directed at a specific police officer, peace officer
39 or a person who he or she knows or reasonably should know is a member of 40 such officer's immediate family, and knows or reasonably should know
41 that such conduct causes material harm to the mental or emotional health 42 of such officer or member of such officer's immediate family, where such 43 conduct consists of the following, telephoning or initiating communi-
44 cation or contact with such officer or a member of such officer's imme-
45 diated family, and the actor was previously clearly informed to cease 46 that conduct; or

47 3. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, approaches, 48 within one hundred yards, the private residence or place of lodging of a 49 police officer or peace officer, without the consent of such officer,
50 for reasons related to the officer's status or service as a police offi-51 cer or peace officer and such purposes are for the purpose of harming or 52 intimidating the officer or the officer's immediate family.

53 For purposes of subdivision two of this section, "following" shall 54 include the unauthorized tracking of a police officer, peace officer, or 55 such officer's immediate family member movements or location through the 56 use of a global positioning system or other device.

1 Stalking a police officer or peace officer is a class E felony.

2 § 3. Paragraph (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the 3 criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as 4 added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 5 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:

6 (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-
7 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a
8 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 9 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 10 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be 11 arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate
12 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person 13 or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as 14 defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that 15 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
16 committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes
17 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a quali-
18 fying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this
19 paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include
20 but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 21 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the 22 court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be 23 in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be
24 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-
25 tary conditions; [~~ex~~]

26 (u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in 27 subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of 28 a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[~~+~~];
29 or

30 (v) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under 31 section 120.80 of the penal law.

32 § 4. Paragraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of 33 section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (xx) as amended 34 and paragraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of 35 chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (xxii)
36 is added to read as follows:

37 (xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-
38 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a
39 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such 40 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on
41 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be
42 arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate
43 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person
44 or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable 45 cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any 46 underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the 47 underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this 48 subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifi-49 able person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or 50 damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in 51 the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is 52 negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal 53 activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance
54 or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [~~ex~~]

55 (xxi) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined 56 in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale

1 of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal 2 law~~[+]~~; or

3 (xxii) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under 4 section 120.80 of the penal law.

5 § 5. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 530.40 of the 6 criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as
7 added by section 4 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 8 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:

9 (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-
10 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a
11 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 12 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 13 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be
14 arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate
15 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person
16 or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as 17 defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that
18 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
19 committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes
20 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a quali-
21 fying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this
22 paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include
23 but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 24 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the
26 in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be
27 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-
28 tary conditions; ~~[ex]~~

29 (u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in 30 subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of 31 a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law~~[+]~~;
32 or

33 (v) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under 34 section 120.80 of the penal law.

35 § 6. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 36 have become a law.
