1 services of any kind, or any valuable consideration or inducement what-2 ever which is not specified in such policy or contract.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph one of this 4 subsection, any services provided, or offered to be provided, by a life 5 insurance company or any officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, or by an insurer doing in this state the business of accident 7 and health insurance and an officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, or by a licensed insurance broker, an employee or other repre-9 sentative of any such, insurer, agent or broker; provided that such 10 services are offered or delivered as part of the sale or renewal of an 11 insurance policy, contract or group insurance policy and offered or 12 delivered in a non-discriminatory manner to all similarly situated insureds or potential insureds, whether or not such services are speci-13 14 fied in such policy or contract, shall not be considered to be an 15 inducement or rebate prohibited by this section unless the superintendent determines, after a notice and hearing, that the offer and sale of 16 17 such services constituted the sole reason for the purchase of such insurance policy, contract or group insurance policy and that, but for 18 the offer or delivery of such service, the purchase of such policy or 19 20 contract would not have taken place.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 22 have become a law.
