AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to rent adjustments for major capital improvements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (g) of paragraph 1 of subdivision g of section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by section 27 of part Q of chapter 39 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5 (g) There has been since July first, nineteen hundred seventy, a major capital improvement essential for the preservation energy efficiency, functionality, or infrastructure of the entire building, improvement of the structure including heating, windows, plumbing and roofing but shall 9 not be for operational costs or unnecessary cosmetic improvements. The 10 temporary increase based upon a major capital improvement under this subparagraph for any order of the commissioner issued after the effec-11 12 tive date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand nineteen that 13 amended this subparagraph shall be in an amount sufficient to amortize 14 the cost of the improvements pursuant to this subparagraph [(g)] over a twelve-year period for buildings with thirty-five or fewer units or a twelve and one-half year period for buildings with more than thirty-five 16 units, and shall be removed from the legal regulated rent thirty years 17 from the date the increase became effective inclusive of any increases 18 19 granted by the applicable rent guidelines board. Temporary major capital improvement increases shall be collectible prospectively on the first 21 day of the first month beginning sixty days from the date of mailing 22 notice of approval to the tenant. Such notice shall disclose the total monthly increase in rent and the first month in which the tenant would 24 be required to pay the temporary increase. An approval for a temporary major capital improvement increase shall not include payments. The collection of any increase shall not exceed two percent in any year from the effective date of the order granting the increase over the rent set forth in the schedule of gross rents, with collectability 5 of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar increments and added to the rent as established or set in future years. 7 Upon vacancy, the landlord may add any remaining balance of the temporary major capital improvement increase to the legal regulated rent. A 9 rent adjustment for a major capital improvement may only be granted if 10 the owner or agent of the subject building first applies for and receives benefits pursuant to section 11-243 of this code for the build-11 12 ing for which they are seeking a major capital improvement for, provided, however, an owner or agent of the subject building that is 13 denied benefits pursuant to section 11-243 of this code for reasons 14 15 unrelated to an untimely or improperly completed application shall still 16 be eligible to receive a rent adjustment for a major capital improve-17 ment. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, for any renewal lease commencing on or after June 14, 2019, the collection of any rent 18 19 increases due to any major capital improvements approved on or after 2012 and before June 16, 2019 shall not exceed two percent in 20 June 16, 21 any year for any tenant in occupancy on the date the major capital 22 improvement was approved[7]; or 23

- § 2. Paragraph 6 of subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as separately amended by section 12 of part K of chapter 36 and section 28 of part Q of chapter 39 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- 27 (6) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon applica-28 tions by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent increase established under this law provided, however, that such crite-29 30 ria shall provide (a) as to hardship applications, for a finding that 31 the level of fair rent increase is not sufficient to enable the owner to 32 maintain approximately the same average annual net income (which shall 33 be computed without regard to debt service, financing costs or manage-34 for the three year period ending on or within six months of ment fees) 35 the date of an application pursuant to such criteria as compared with 36 annual net income, which prevailed on the average over the period nine-37 teen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy, or for the first three years of operation if the building was completed since nine-39 teen hundred sixty-eight or for the first three fiscal years after a 40 transfer of title to a new owner provided the new owner can establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she acquired title to 41 42 the building as a result of a bona fide sale of the entire building and 43 that the new owner is unable to obtain requisite records for the fiscal years nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy 45 despite diligent efforts to obtain same from predecessors in title and 46 further provided that the new owner can provide financial data covering 47 a minimum of six years under his or her continuous and uninterrupted 48 operation of the building to meet the three year to three year comparative test periods herein provided; and (b) as to completed building-49 wide major capital improvements, for a finding that such improvements 50 51 are deemed depreciable under the Internal Revenue Code and that the cost 52 is to be amortized over a twelve-year period for a building with thir-53 ty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a twelve and one-half-year period for a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any determination issued by the division of housing and community 56 renewal after the effective date of the the chapter of the laws of two thousand nineteen that amended this paragraph and shall be removed from the legal regulated rent thirty years from the date the increase became effective inclusive of any increases granted by the applicable rent guidelines board. Temporary major capital improvement increases shall be 5 collectible prospectively on the first day of the first month beginning sixty days from the date of mailing notice of approval to the tenant. 7 Such notice shall disclose the total monthly increase in rent and the first month in which the tenant would be required to pay the temporary 9 increase. An approval for a temporary major capital improvement increase 10 shall not include retroactive payments. The collection of any increase 11 shall not exceed two percent in any year from the effective date of 12 order granting the increase over the rent set forth in the schedule of gross rents, with collectability of any dollar excess above said sum to 13 14 spread forward in similar increments and added to the rent as estab-15 lished or set in future years. Upon vacancy, the landlord may add any remaining balance of the temporary major capital improvement increase to 16 17 the legal regulated rent. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, for any renewal lease commencing on or after June 14, 2019, the 18 19 collection of any rent increases due to any major capital improvements approved on or after June 16, 2012 and before June 16, 2019 shall not 20 21 exceed two percent in any year for any tenant in occupancy on the date 22 the major capital improvement was approved or based upon cash purchase price exclusive of interest or service charges. Where an application for 23 a temporary major capital improvement increase has been filed, a tenant 24 25 shall have sixty days from the date of mailing of a notice of a proceed-26 ing in which to answer or reply. The state division of housing and 27 community renewal shall provide any responding tenant with the reasons 28 for the division's approval or denial of such application. A rent 29 adjustment for a major capital improvement may only be granted if the 30 owner or agent of the subject building first applies for and receives 31 benefits pursuant to section 11-243 of this code for the building for 32 which they are seeking a major capital improvement for, provided, howev-33 er, an owner or agent of the subject building that is denied benefits 34 pursuant to section 11-243 of this code for reasons unrelated to an 35 untimely or improperly completed application shall still be eligible to 36 receive a rent adjustment for a major capital improvement. Notwithstand-37 ing anything to the contrary contained herein, no hardship increase granted pursuant to this paragraph shall, when added to the annual gross 39 rents, as determined by the commissioner, exceed the sum of, (i) the 40 annual operating expenses, (ii) an allowance for management services as determined by the commissioner, (iii) actual annual mortgage debt 41 42 service (interest and amortization) on its indebtedness to a lending 43 institution, an insurance company, a retirement fund or welfare fund 44 which is operated under the supervision of the banking or insurance laws 45 the state of New York or the United States, and (iv) eight and one-46 half percent of that portion of the fair market value of the property 47 which exceeds the unpaid principal amount of the mortgage indebtedness 48 referred to in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph. Fair market value 49 for the purposes of this paragraph shall be six times the annual gross rent. The collection of any increase in the stabilized rent for any 50 51 apartment pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed six percent in any 52 year from the effective date of the order granting the increase over the 53 rent set forth in the schedule of gross rents, with collectability of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar increments and added to the stabilized rent as established or set in future 55 56 years;
