- 8. "Essential personal property" shall mean articles of personal property necessary and essential to the health, welfare or safety of the victim.
- (a) Personal property necessary and essential to the welfare of the 7 victim shall mean personal property of a victim that is lost, damaged, or stolen as a result of a crime and for which reimbursement or replacement is reasonably necessary for the victim to restore stability or 9 10 maintain a reasonable and/or basic standard of living.
- 11 (b) The office shall promulgate rules and regulations for the determi-12 nation and approval of what constitutes property reasonably necessary to 13 restore or maintain a reasonable and/or basic standard of living 14 consistent with this article.
- § 2. Subdivision 9 of section 631 of the executive law, as amended by 15 section 1 of part I of chapter 55 of the laws of 2022, is amended to 16 17 read as follows:
- 18 9. (a) Any award made for the cost of repair or replacement of essen-19 tial personal property, including cash losses of essential personal 20 property, shall be limited to an amount of twenty-five hundred dollars, except that all cash losses of essential personal property shall be 22 limited to the amount of one hundred dollars. In the case of medically 23 necessary life-sustaining equipment which was lost or damaged as the 1 direct result of a crime, the award shall be limited to the amount of 2 ten thousand dollars.

- (b) For property necessary and essential to the welfare of the victim, the office may request that the claimant provide estimates or receipts for personal property lost, damaged or stolen as a result of the crime.

 A claimant's inability to produce a receipt for lost, stolen or damaged personal items shall not in itself disqualify a claimant from receiving reimbursement for such items. The office shall consider all the facts and circumstances of each case before making a determination.
- 10 (c) Personal property necessary and essential to the welfare of the 11 victim shall include, but not be limited to, the following items lost,
 12 damaged, or stolen as a result of the crime:
- 13 (i) clothing:
