AN ACT to amend the public buildings law and the public health law, in relation to requiring public institutions and buildings to be equipped with opioid antagonists

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 "Erin's law".

3 § 2. Section 140 of the public buildings law is amended by adding a 4 new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

5 2-a. Subject to regulations promulgated pursuant to this subdivision,
6 it shall be an additional duty of each such superintendent or chief 7 executive officer of each of the public institutions and buildings of 8 the state to equip each such building with opioid antagonists. The 9 commissioner of general services shall promulgate regulations, in coor-10 ordination with the commissioner of health and in full accordance with the 11 standards, powers and authorizations of section thirty-three hundred 12 nine of the public health law, providing for a phase-in schedule of the 13 duty created by this subdivision. Such regulations shall address the 14 appropriate number of opioid antagonists for such buildings, based on 15 the size or occupancy of the buildings; the training of personnel and 16 use of such opioid antagonists; and any other matter deemed necessary by 17 such commissioner to effectuate the duty prescribed by this section.

18 § 3. Section 3309 of the public health law is amended by adding a new 19 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

20 9. The commissioner shall, in full accordance with the standards, 21 powers and authorizations established by this section, coordinate with 22 the commissioner of general services to effectuate the duty established

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
