2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 4, 2023

Introduced by Sens. SALAZAR, BRISPORT, BROUK, CLEARE, COMRIE, COONEY, GIANARIS, HOYLMAN, JACKSON, MAY, MYRIE, PERSAUD, RAMOS, RIVERA, SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to authorizing certain persons confined in institutions operated by the department of corrections and community supervision to apply for a sentence reduction

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 440.45 to read as follows:

§ 440.45 Application for sentence reduction.

1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any minimum sentence requirement, any person confined in an institution operated by the department of corrections and community supervision who has served ten years of their sentence, or one-half of the minimum term of an indeterminate sentence where the minimum term equals or exceeds ten years, or one-half of a determinate sentence where the sentence equals or exceeds ten years, whichever is less, may apply for a reduction of their sentence pursuant to the provisions of this statute. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "sentence" shall include any aggregate sentence where consecutive sentences are imposed.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an otherwise ineligible person shall be deemed eligible to apply for a reduction in sentence upon consent of the prosecutor in the underlying criminal action in which the sentence was imposed.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the prosecutor in the underlying criminal action in which a sentence was imposed may initiate an application for resentencing on behalf of the incarcerated

1 individual and upon such application an attorney shall be assigned to 2 represent the incarcerated individual in proceedings pursuant to this 3 section.

4 (d) No waiver of the right to make an application for a sentence 5 reduction under this section shall be permitted or honored by the 6 sentencing court. Any such waiver shall be deemed void and unenforcea-7 ble.

8 (e) No less than thirty days before the date on which the person 9 becomes eligible pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision to apply 10 for a sentence reduction, the department of corrections and community 11 supervision shall provide written notice of this section and its 12 provisions to:

13 (i) the defendant;

14 (ii) the attorney of record;

15 (iii) the administrator of the county panel established for purposes 16 of the administration of article eighteen-B of the county law and all 17 institutional offices that provide criminal defense services within the 18 county in which the sentence was imposed;

19 (iv) Prisoners' Legal Services of New York;

20 (v) the sentencing court; and 21 (vi) the prosecutor in the underlying criminal action in which the 22 sentence was imposed.

23 (f) A person who is eligible for a sentence reduction pursuant to this 24 subdivision may request that the court assign him or her an attorney for 25 the preparation of and proceedings on the application for resentencing 26 pursuant to this section. The attorney shall be assigned in accordance 27 with the provisions of subdivision one of section seven hundred seven-28 teen and subdivision four of section seven hundred twenty-two of the 29 county law and the related provisions of article eighteen-A of such law 30 for the application and any proceedings under this section, including 31 any appeal and successive application. The court shall notify the appli-32 cant about the appointment of counsel.

33 2. (a) An application for a sentence reduction under this section 34 shall be filed in the county in which the sentence was imposed to reduce 35 the sentence of the applicant pursuant to this section and may include 36 affidavits, letters, declarations, records from the department of 37 corrections and community supervision, video submissions, or any other 38 written or electronic material.

39 (b) Upon the court's receipt of an application for a sentence
40 reduction, the court shall promptly notify the appropriate prosecutor 41 and provide such prosecutor with a copy of the application.

42 (c) An application filed pursuant to this section shall be randomly 43 assigned by the administrative judge designated by the office of court 44 administration with jurisdiction over the county where the application 45 is filed to any superior court judge with criminal jurisdiction other 46 than the judge who first sentenced the applicant unless the judge who 47 first sentenced the applicant is the only judge in that county.

48 (d) An application filed under this section may be amended or supple-49 mented as necessary.

50 (e) After the filing of an application to reduce a sentence under this 51 section, the court may direct the parties to expand the record by 52 submitting additional written materials relating to the application.

53 (f) (i) The court shall, upon request of the applicant or the prose-54 cuting office, conduct a hearing on the application, at which the appli-55 cant and counsel for the applicant shall be given the opportunity to be 56 heard. Such hearing shall be recorded or transcribed. The applicant has

1 the right to be present at any such hearing unless the applicant waives 2 the right to be present in writing.

3 (ii) In a hearing pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the 4 court shall allow parties to present any evidence pertinent to the issue 5 of a sentence reduction and the factors outlined in paragraph (b) of 6 subdivision four of this section. Such evidence may include documents, 7 live testimony, tangible objects, or any other class of evidence or 8 information pertinent to sentencing. At such hearing, the applicant 9 shall have the right to make a statement personally, on their own 10 behalf, in the same manner as provided in subdivision one of section 11 380.50 of this part.

12 3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a court shall 13 reduce a term of imprisonment imposed upon a defendant if:

14 (i) the applicant is eligible pursuant to subdivision one of this 15 section; and

16 (ii) the court finds, after considering the factors set forth in 17 subdivision four of this section, that the interests of justice warrant 18 a sentence modification.

19 (b) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when reducing an 20 applicant's sentence under this section, the court may issue a sentence 21 less than the minimum term otherwise required by article seventy of the 22 penal law. Otherwise, the applicable provisions in article seventy of 23 the penal law in effect at the time of the sentence reduction shall 24 apply.

25 (ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when reducing an 26 applicant's sentence under this section, the court may issue a sentence 27 to be served concurrently to any other sentence of imprisonment, being 28 served by the applicant.

29 (iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when reducing an 30 applicant's sentence under this section, the court may sentence the 31 applicant to a less than minimum term of supervised release otherwise 32 required by law.

33 (c) In ordering a sentence reduction, the court shall, unless counter-34 vailing considerations require, reduce the applicant's sentence so that 35 the applicant will be eligible for immediate release from prison after 36 the necessary calculations.

37 (d) The court may not increase any applicant's sentence, and if the 38 original judgment was the result of a plea agreement, resentencing 39 pursuant to this section shall not constitute grounds for a prosecutor 40 or the court to withdraw their agreement to the original plea agreement.

41 4. (a) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the applicant's 42 sentence shall be reduced in the case of:

43 (i) an applicant who is fifty-five years of age or older on the date 44 on which the applicant files an application for a sentence reduction 45 pursuant to subdivision one of this section; or

46 (ii) an applicant who was twenty-five years old or younger on the date 47 on which the applicant committed the offense or offenses for which the 48 applicant is imprisoned.

49 (b) The court, in determining whether to reduce a term of imprisonment 50 pursuant to subdivision three of this section, shall consider the 51 following factors:

52 (i) the history and characteristics of the applicant at the time of 53 the application for a reduction in sentence, including but not limited 54 to:

55 (1) any history of abuse, trauma, or involvement in the child welfare 56 system;

1 (2) the potential benefits to children and family members of reunifi-2 cation with the applicant;

3 (3) rehabilitation demonstrated by the applicant;

4 (4) the applicant's records while incarcerated; and

5 (5) the applicant's efforts to participate in educational, therapeu-6 tic, and vocational opportunities while incarcerated to the extent such 7 programs were available; provided however that the fact that the appli-8 cant may have been unable to participate in treatment or other program-9 ming while incarcerated despite such applicant's willingness to do so 10 shall not be considered a negative factor in determining an application 11 pursuant to this section;

12 (ii) the circumstances of the offense, including the applicant's role 13 in its commission, whether the applicant was under the influence of 14 another, and whether there is any other factor that would tend to dimin-15 ish the applicant's culpability;

16 (iii) any report from a physical, mental, or psychiatric examination 17 of the applicant conducted by a licensed healthcare professional;

18 (iv) any statement offered in response to this application by any 19 victim of an offense for which the applicant is imprisoned or by a fami-20 ly member of the victim if the victim is deceased;

21 (v) any evidence concerning whether the applicant's sentence was 22 enhanced because the applicant exercised their constitutional right to a 23 trial, including but not limited to, evidence concerning the plea offers 24 made prior to the trial;

25 (vi) any presentation of argument and evidence by counsel for the 26 applicant or by the applicant;

27 (vii) any presentation of argument and evidence by the prosecutor; and 28 (viii) the financial cost of continued incarceration to the state 29 and/or localities.

30 5. A written order determining an application for reduction of 31 sentence shall issue forthwith and in no event later than thirty days 32 after any hearing or after all submissions have been filed if no hearing 33 is held. Such an order shall include detailed written findings of fact 34 and the reasons for granting or denying the application.

35 6. In calculating any new sentence to be served by the applicant, such 36 applicant shall be credited for any jail time credited towards the 37 subject convictions as well as any period of incarceration credited 38 toward the sentence or sentences originally imposed.

39 7. An appeal may be taken as of right in accordance with applicable 40 provisions of this chapter:

41 (a) from an order denying the application for a sentence reduction; or 42 (b) from a new sentence imposed under this section and may be based on 43 the grounds that:

44 (i) the term of the new sentence is harsh or excessive; or 45 (ii) the term of the new sentence is unauthorized as a matter of law.

46 8. The applicant shall be permitted to file successive applications 47 and such applications shall not be considered more than once every three 48 years.

49 9. (a) This section shall not be construed to abridge or modify any 50 existing remedy an incarcerated individual may have under habeas corpus, 51 statutory or judicial postconviction relief, or any other legal frame-52 work.

53 (b) An application under this section shall not impact in any way or 54 be impacted in any way by any pending habeas or other postconviction 55 proceeding, nor shall the denial of an application under this section 56 preclude such remedies from being granted.

1 10. In three years, the comptroller shall conduct an analysis of 2 savings found from decarceration and shall make recommendations to the 3 legislature regarding diverting such savings to fund prison-based and 4 community-based programs designed to counter recidivism through educa-5 tion, therapeutic intervention, maintenance of familial and social 6 networks, restorative justice practices for survivors of crimes, and 7 successful post-custodial re-entry to society.

8 11. (a) The clerk of the court upon determination of an application 9 filed pursuant to this section shall report the following information to 10 the office of court administration:

11 (i) the name, department identification number, and race of each 12 incarcerated individual who has been denied or granted resentencing;

13 (ii) how many years of imprisonment each incarcerated individual 14 served at the time of the application;

15 (iii) any new sentence if applicable;

16 (iv) the county and the name of the judge deciding the application;

17 (v) whether the prosecutor consented, opposed or took no position on 18 the application; and 19 (vi) if any prior applications had been submitted and the date such 20 applications were decided.

21 (b) The office of court administration shall provide an annual collec-22 tive report containing the information received from the clerks of the 23 court pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision to the governor and 24 legislature.

25 § 2. Any applicant who is immediately eligible to apply for a sentence 26 reduction pursuant to section 440.45 of the criminal procedure law shall 27 be provided the notice required pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision 28 1 of such section within sixty days of the effective date of this act.

29 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 30 offenses committed prior to, on or after the effective date of this act.
