AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to mercantile establishments and the defense of lawful detention

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 218 of the general business law, as amended by 1 chapter 374 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows: 2 § 218. 1. Defense of lawful detention. 3 In any action for false 4 arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful detention, defamation of character, 5 assault, trespass, or invasion of civil rights, brought by any person by reason of having been detained on or in the immediate vicinity of the б 7 premises of (a) a retail mercantile establishment for the purpose of 8 investigation or questioning as to criminal possession of an anti-secur-9 ity item as defined in section 170.47 of the penal law or as to the ownership of any merchandise, or (b) a motion picture theater for the 10 11 purposes of investigation or questioning as to the unauthorized operation of a recording device in a motion picture theater, it shall be a 12 13 defense to such action that the person was detained in a reasonable 14 manner and for not more than a reasonable time to permit such investi-15 gation or questioning by a peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties, police officer or by the owner of the retail mercantile 16 establishment or motion picture theater, his or her authorized employee 17 or agent, and that such officer, owner, employee or agent had reasonable 18 grounds to believe that the person so detained was guilty of criminal 19 possession of an anti-security item as defined in section 170.47 of the 20 21 penal law or was committing or attempting to commit larceny on such 22 premises of such merchandise or was engaged in the unauthorized opera-23 tion of a recording device in a motion picture theater.

24 2. As used in this section, "reasonable grounds" shall include, but 25 not be limited to, knowledge that a person [(i)] (a) has concealed

1 possession of unpurchased merchandise of a retail mercantile establish-2 ment, or [(ii)] (b) has possession of an item designed for the purpose 3 of overcoming detection of security markings attachments placed on 4 merchandise offered for sale at such an establishment, or [(iii)] (c) 5 has possession of a recording device in a theater in which a motion 6 picture is being exhibited [and a].

7 3. A "reasonable time" shall mean the time necessary, not to exceed 8 one hour, except for extraordinary circumstances, to permit the person 9 detained to make a statement or to refuse to make a statement[τ] and the 10 time necessary to examine employees and records of the mercantile estab-11 lishment relative to the ownership of the merchandise, or possession of 12 such an item or device.

The release from detention shall not be conditioned upon any 13 4. 14 requirement that, the person detained pursuant to subdivision one of 15 this section, or his or her parent or legal guardian, sign any docu-16 ments, statements, or agreements to pay damages. Any documents presented 17 shall not contain any message stating that such document or statement is being signed voluntarily and without coercion. Any person detained, or 18 his or her parent or legal guardian, who signs any statement or docu-19 20 ments, shall, upon release, be provided with copies of such statements 21 or documents so signed. A minor, under the age of eighteen, detained 22 pursuant to this section, should immediately be afforded the ability to 23 contact his or her parents or legal guardian.

24 5. Such detention at such vicinity shall not authorize the taking of 25 such person's fingerprints at such vicinity unless the taking of fingerprints is otherwise authorized by section 160.10 of the criminal proce-26 27 dure law and are taken by the arresting or other appropriate police officer or agency described therein in accordance with section 140.20 or 28 29 140.27 of such law. Whenever fingerprints are taken, the requirements of 30 article one hundred sixty of the criminal procedure law shall apply as if fully set forth herein. 31

32 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
