- (2) Such tax may be collected and administered by the Wayne county legislature, or other fiscal officers of Wayne county by such means and in such manner as other taxes which are now collected and administered by such officers or as otherwise may be provided by such local law.
- (3) Such local laws may provide that any tax imposed shall be paid by the person liable therefor to the owner of the hotel or motel room or seasonal rental property occupied or to the person entitled to be paid the rent or charge for the hotel or motel room or seasonal rental property occupied for and on account of the county of Wayne imposing the tax and that such owner or person entitled to be paid the rent or charge shall be liable for the collection and payment of the tax; and that such owner or person entitled to be paid the rent or charge shall have the same right in respect to collecting the tax from the person occupying the hotel or motel room or seasonal rental property, or in respect to nonpayment of the tax by the person occupying the hotel or motel room or seasonal rental property, as if the tax were a part of the rent or charge and payable at the same time as the rent or charge; provided, however, that the Wayne county treasurer, specified in such local law, shall be joined as a party in any action or proceeding brought to collect the tax by the owner or by the person entitled to be paid the rent or charge.
- (4) Such local laws may provide for the filing of returns and the payment of the tax on a monthly basis or on the basis of any longer or shorter period of time.
- (5) This section shall not authorize the imposition of such tax upon any transaction, by or with any of the following in accordance with section twelve hundred thirty of this article:

 - (6) Any final determination of the amount of any tax payable hereunder shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such final determination, provided, however, that any such proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted unless:

b. At the option of the petitioner such undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, interests, and penalties stated in such determination plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the petitioner shall not be required to pay such taxes, interest or penalties as a condition precedent to the application.

(7) Where any tax imposed hereunder shall have been erroneously, illegally, or unconstitutionally collected and application for the refund thereof duly made to the proper fiscal officer or officers, and such officer or officers shall have made a determination denying such refund, such determination shall be reviewable by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided, however, that such proceeding is instituted within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such denial, that a final determination of tax due was not previously made, and that an undertaking is filed with the proper fiscal officer or officers in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

(8) Except in the case of a willfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more than three years from the date of the filing of a return, provided, however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax may be assessed at any time.

(9) All revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under the local laws shall be paid into the treasury of the county of Wayne and shall be credited to and deposited in the general fund of the county, thereafter to be allocated for tourist and convention development in the county of Wayne and the surrounding tourist region; provided, however, that such local laws shall provide that the county shall be authorized to retain up to a maximum of five percent of such revenue to defer the necessary expenses of the county in administering such tax. The revenue derived from the tax, after deducting the amount provided for administering such tax, as so authorized by local law, shall be appropriated annually by the county legislature upon adoption of the budget for the county of Wayne to enhance the general economy of the county of Wayne, its city, towns and villages, and the general economy of the tourist region in which the county of Wayne is located, through the promotion of regional tourism, tourist activities, conventions, trade shows, special events, tourist attractions and other directly related and supporting activities.
