31 § 3. Subdivision (b) of section 208 of the civil practice law and 32 rules, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 33 follows:

34 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 35 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-
36 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file
37 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 38 proceeding, with respect to all civil claims or causes of action brought 39 by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition 40 suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute a 41 sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
42 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 43 sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed 44 against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, sex traf-
45 ficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,
46 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
47 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 48 or the use of such person in a sexual performance as defined in section 49 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such 50 conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against such 51 person who was less than eighteen years of age, such action may be 52 commenced, against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or 53 omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of said
54 conduct, on or before the plaintiff or infant plaintiff reaches the age 55 of fifty-five years. In any such claim or action, in addition to any 56 other defense and affirmative defense that may be available in accord-

1 ance with law, rule or the common law, to the extent that the acts 2 alleged in such action are of the type described in subdivision one of 3 section 130.30 of the penal law or subdivision one of section 130.45 of 4 the penal law, the affirmative defenses set forth, respectively, in the 5 closing paragraph of such sections of the penal law shall apply.

6 § 4. Section 214-g of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 7 chapter 130 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

8 § 214-g. (a) Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any 9 provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary 10 and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice 11 of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition prece-12 dent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil 13 claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional 14 or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, 15 or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 16 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 17 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
18 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
19 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 20 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 21 penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 22 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than 23 eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this 24 section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or 25 the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of 26 intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be 27 commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than two 28 years and six months after the effective date of this section. In any 29 such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and affirma-30 tive defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule or the 31 common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action are of 32 the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the penal law 33 or subdivision one of section 130.45 of the penal law, the affirmative 34 defenses set forth, respectively, in the closing paragraph of such 35 sections of the penal law shall apply; and (b) dismissal of a previous 36 action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds 37 that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party 38 to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, 39 shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this 40 section.

41 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 42 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-
43 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file
44 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 45 proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any 46 party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person 47 for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a 48 result of conduct which would constitute sex trafficking as defined in 49 section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than 50 eighteen years of age or sex trafficking of a child as defined in 51 section 230.34-a of the penal law, which is barred as of the effective 52 date of this subdivision because the applicable period of limitation has 53 expired, and/or the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of 54 claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and 55 action thereon may be commenced not earlier than six months after, and 56 not later than one year and six months after the effective date of this subdivision. In any such claim or action, dismissal of a previous action, ordered before the effective date of this subdivision, on grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this subdivision.

§ 5. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article or any other provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary, except as provided in subdivision (b) of section two hundred eight of this article, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.25 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in section 255.26 of the penal law (where the crime committed is rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law, or sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law may be brought against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of the said conduct, within twenty years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a criminal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condition of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil action.

§ 6. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 214-k to read as follows:

§ 214-k. Certain sexual offense actions. Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against such person who was eighteen years of age or older, which is barred as of the effective date of this section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than one year and six months after the effective date of this section. In any such claim or action, dismissal of a previous action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this section.

§ 7. Paragraph 7 of subdivision (a) of rule 3403 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 203 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

7. any action which has been revived pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of section two hundred fourteen-g [~~ex~~], two hundred fourteen-j, or two hundred fourteen-k of this chapter.

§ 8. Section 219-e of the judiciary law, as added by chapter 203 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

§ 219-e. Rules reviving certain actions; sexual offenses. The chief administrator of the courts shall promulgate rules for the timely adjudication of revived actions brought pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-j and section two hundred fourteen-k of the civil practice law and rules.

§ 9. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 50-e of the general municipal law, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(b) This section shall not apply to any claim made for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

§ 10. Subdivision 5 of section 50-i of the general municipal law, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any claim made against a city, county, town, village, fire district or school district for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

§ 11. Subdivision 10 of section 10 of the court of claims act, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

10. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which

1 would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred 2 thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen 3 years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal 4 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex traf-
5 ficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,
6 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
7 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 8 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 9 penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

10 § 12. Subdivision 2 of section 3813 of the education law, as amended 11 by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

12 2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained in 13 this section, no action or special proceeding founded upon tort shall be 14 prosecuted or maintained against any of the parties named in this 15 section or against any teacher or member of the supervisory or adminis-16 trative staff or employee where the alleged tort was committed by such 17 teacher or member or employee acting in the discharge of his duties 18 within the scope of his employment and/or under the direction of the 19 board of education, trustee or trustees, or governing body of the school 20 unless a notice of claim shall have been made and served in compliance
21 with section fifty-e of the general municipal law. Every such action 22 shall be commenced pursuant to the provisions of section fifty-i of the 23 general municipal law; provided, however, that this section shall not 24 apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psychological, or 25 other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 26 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 27 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, 28 sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal 29 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as 30 defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed 31 against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child 32 in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law 33 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

34 § 13. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 35 part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdic-36 tion to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, 37 the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder there-38 of, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, 39 paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the contro-40 versy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

41 § 14. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to acts 42 or omissions occurring on or after such effective date and to acts or 43 omissions occurring prior to such effective date where the applicable 44 statute of limitations in effect on the date of such act or omission has 45 not yet expired.
