15 A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while 16 lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), 17 (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this 18 article.
 19 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not 20 require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceu-21 tical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 22 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her 23 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 24 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 25 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 26 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, 27 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting 28 individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance 29 policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only 30 report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individ-

 32 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family 33 court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or 34 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 35 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 36 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 37 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-
 38 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, 39 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 40 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 41 office of court administration, who will maintain such information
 42 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 43 to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclo-
 44 sure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time 45 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 46 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 47 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 48 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-49 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration 50 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information 51 submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confiden-
 52 tially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not 53 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to

1 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the commission on 2 ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the 3 executive law, or from the office of court administration. In such 4 application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My 5 client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in 6 connection with:

13 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 14 reporting period; or

15 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
16 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

17 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
18 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 19 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 20 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 21 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, 22 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 23 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 24 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 25 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; 26 and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has 27 any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how signif-28 icant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade
29 secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation 30 against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the 31 client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attor-32 ney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an 33 unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

34 The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case 35 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final 36 determination in response to such request, which shall include an expla-37 nation for its determination. The office of court administration shall 38 issue its final determination within three days of receiving the 39 request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional 40 disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any 41 client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute 42 professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, 43 or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceed-
44 ing. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January 45 first, two thousand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with 46 respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm 47 was retained prior to entering public office.

48 (c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE 49 PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR 50 NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE 51 SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOU-52 SAND FIFTEEN:

53 If the reporting individual receives income of ten thousand dollars or 54 greater from any employment or activity reportable under question 8(a), 55 identify each registered lobbyist who has directly referred to such 56 individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting indi-

1 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm
2 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 3 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 4 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 5 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 6 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 7 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 8 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 9 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 10 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 11 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 12 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 13 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 14 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering 15 services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal 16 law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not 17 identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal 18 representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law 19 enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or 20 domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify 21 individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the report-22 ing individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that 23 provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to 24 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-25 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters 26 in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to 27 minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent 28 that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal repre-29 sentation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or 30 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 31 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 32 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 33 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-34 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 35 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 36 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 37 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 38 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 39 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response 40 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 41 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 42 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 43 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 44 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 45 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the 46 commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section 47 ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court adminis-48 tration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the 49 following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking 50 my services in connection with:

- 51 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 52 reporting period;
- 53 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state 54 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;
- 55 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency 56 during the reporting period;

1 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the
2 reporting period; or

3 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
4 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

5 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
6 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 7 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 8 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may
9 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination,
10 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 11 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider
