19 within the locality; and (iii) entering into a written agreement with a 20 licensed real estate broker or selling agent in connection with the sale 21 of dwelling units offered for sale under the preservation plan. For the 22 avoidance of doubt, a commercially reasonable good faith effort shall 23 not require an offeror to sell dwelling units at a price substantially

39 laboratory diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent 40 and which prevent the tenant from engaging in any substantial gainful 41 employment on the date the preservation plan is submitted to the depart-42 ment of law or on the date the attorney general has accepted the preser-

52 during the period subsequent to sixty days following the acceptance of 53 the preservation plan for filing but prior to such election, the offeror 54 accepts a written agreement to purchase the apartment from a bona fide 55 purchaser; and provided further that such election shall not preclude

28 (f) a representation that no purchaser counted for purposes of declar-29 ing the preservation plan effective is the offeror, the selling agent or 30 the managing agent, or is a principal of the offeror, the selling agent, 31 or the managing agent or is related to any principal of the offeror, any 32 principal of the selling agent or any principal of the managing agent by 33 blood, marriage, or adoption, or is an affiliate, business associate, an 34 employee, a shareholder, a member, a manager, a director, an officer, a 35 limited partner of the offeror, selling agent or managing agent.

36 10. The preservation plan shall provide that it will be deemed aban-37 doned, void and of no effect if it does not become effective within 38 fifteen months from the date of issue of the letter of the attorney 39 general stating that the preservation plan has been accepted for filing 40 and, in the event of such abandonment, no new plan for the conversion of 41 such building or group of buildings or development shall be submitted to 42 the attorney general for at least twelve months after such abandonment.

43 11. No closings of title of a dwelling unit to a purchaser under the 44 preservation plan shall take place until the attorney general shall have 45 also accepted for filing an amendment that declares the preservation 46 plan effective. Within forty-five days of the first closing of title of 47 a dwelling unit to a purchaser under the preservation plan, the offeror 48 shall submit to the attorney general its post-closing amendment to the 49 preservation plan. Thereafter, the preservation plan shall continually 50 be updated with the filing of an annual update amendment, no later than 51 thirty days from the anniversary of the date the attorney general 52 accepted the post-closing amendment for filing. An offeror or successor 53 offeror shall only be relieved of its obligation to file an annual 54 update amendment to the preservation plan after the last dwelling unit 55 offered for sale is conveyed to a purchaser under the preservation plan.

12. After the date of acceptance for filing of the post-closing amendment, the offeror shall continue to make commercially reasonable good faith efforts to sell the dwelling units it owns.

13. The attorney general shall refuse to accept for filing an annual update amendment to the preservation plan unless:

(a) The annual update amendment discloses, in addition to the other disclosures required elsewhere in this section or the regulations of the attorney general, the following data and information:

(i) an accounting of the dwelling units sold and closed by the offeror in the preceding twelve months, with an indication if the dwelling unit was conveyed to a purchaser under the preservation plan or to a successor offeror;

(ii) an inventory of the offeror's unsold dwelling units at the end of the preceding twelve months, in form and substance as shall satisfy the attorney general; and

(iii) all the information, data and literature presented by the board of managers in its semi-annual reports on the status of the reserve fund as required under subdivision five of section three hundred thirty-nine-mm of the real property law.

(b) The annual update amendment shall be accompanied by an affidavit from a principal of the offeror attesting to the following data and information with respect to all the dwelling units the offeror then owns:

(i) the dwelling units' identifying information and general location;

(ii) whether, on the date of submission of the annual update amendment, the unsold dwelling unit is subject to a fully executed purchase agreement, and if so, whether the purchaser is a purchaser under the preservation plan or otherwise;

(iii) whether, on the date of submission of the annual update amendment, the dwelling unit is occupied or vacant, and if occupied, an indication that occupancy is:

(A) by a rent-regulated tenant;

(B) by a market-rate tenant;

(C) a month-to-month tenancy;

(D) a tenancy at sufferance; or

(E) other.

(iv) notwithstanding the occupancy status of a dwelling unit on the date of submission of the annual update amendment, an indication if the dwelling unit was vacant for more than one of the twelve preceding months. For each dwelling unit so indicated, the offeror shall also disclose:

(A) the date range that the dwelling unit was vacant;

(B) the date range for any period of time that the dwelling unit was marketed for sale;

(C) date of sale;

(D) the date the dwelling unit was leased by a tenant; and

(E) the date the lease is set to expire (if applicable).

14. No eviction proceedings shall be commenced at any time against non-purchasing tenants for failure to purchase or for any other reason applicable to expiration of tenancy; provided that such proceedings may be commenced for non-payment of rent, illegal use or occupancy of the premises, refusal of reasonable access to the owner or a similar breach by the non-purchasing tenant of his, her or their obligations to the owner of the dwelling unit; and provided further that an owner of a unit may not commence an action to recover possession of a dwelling unit from a non-purchasing tenant on the grounds that he, she or they seek the 1 dwelling unit for the use and occupancy of himself or herself or his, 2 her or their family's use and occupancy.

3 15. No eviction proceedings shall be commenced, except as provided in 4 this subdivision, at any time against either eligible senior citizens or 5 eligible disabled persons. The rentals of eligible senior citizens and 6 eligible disabled persons who reside in dwelling units not subject to 7 government regulation as to rentals and continued occupancy and eligible 8 senior citizens and eligible disabled persons who reside in dwelling 9 units with respect to which government regulation as to rentals and 10 continued occupancy is eliminated or becomes inapplicable after the 11 preservation plan has been accepted for filing shall not be subject to 12 unconscionable increases beyond ordinary rentals for comparable apart-13 ments during the period of their occupancy considering, in determining 14 comparability, such factors as building services, level of maintenance 15 and operating expenses; provided that such proceedings may be commenced 16 against such tenants for non-payment of rent, illegal use or occupancy 17 of the premises, refusal of reasonable access to the owner or a similar 18 breach by the tenant of his, her or their obligations to the owner of 19 the dwelling unit.

20 16. Eligible senior citizens and eligible disabled persons who reside 21 in dwelling units subject to government regulation as to rentals and 22 continued occupancy shall continue to be subject thereto.

23 17. The rights granted under the preservation plan to eligible senior 24 citizens and eligible disabled persons may not be abrogated or reduced 25 notwithstanding any expiration of, or amendment to, this section.

26 18. Any offeror who disputes the election by a person to be an eligi-27 ble senior citizen or an eligible disabled person shall apply to the 28 attorney general within thirty days of the receipt of the election forms 29 for a determination by the attorney general of such person's eligibil-30 ity. The attorney general shall, within thirty days thereafter, issue a 31 determination of eligibility. The foregoing shall, in the absence of 32 fraud, be the sole method for determining a dispute as to whether a 33 person is an eligible senior citizen or an eligible disabled person. The 34 determination of the attorney general shall be reviewable only through a 35 proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 36 rules, which proceeding shall be commenced within thirty days after such 37 determination by the attorney general becomes final.

38 19. Non-purchasing tenants who reside in dwelling units subject to 39 government regulation as to rentals and continued occupancy prior to the 40 conversion of the building or group of buildings or development to 41 condominium ownership shall continue to be subject thereto.

42 20. The rentals of non-purchasing tenants who reside in dwelling units 43 not subject to government regulation as to rentals and continued occu-44 pancy and non-purchasing tenants who reside in dwelling units with 45 respect to which government regulation as to rentals and continued occu-46 pancy is eliminated or becomes inapplicable after the preservation plan 47 has been accepted for filing by the attorney general shall not be 48 subject to unconscionable increases beyond ordinary rentals for compara-49 ble apartments during the period of their occupancy. In determining 50 comparability, consideration shall be given to such factors as building 51 services, level of maintenance and operating expenses.

52 21. The rights granted under the preservation plan to purchasers under 53 the preservation plan and to non-purchasing tenants may not be abrogated 54 or reduced notwithstanding any expiration of, or amendment to, this 55 section.

1 22. Any local legislative body may adopt local laws and any agency, 2 officer or public body may prescribe rules and regulations with respect 3 to the continued occupancy by tenants of dwelling units which are 4 subject to regulation as to rentals and continued occupancy pursuant to 5 law, provided that in the event that any such local law, rule or regu-6 lation shall be inconsistent with the provisions of this section, the 7 provisions of this section shall control.

8 23. The attorney general shall refuse to accept for filing a preserva-9 tion plan when the attorney general determines: (a) that one or more of 10 the income-restricted rental units within the building, group of build-11 ings or development was vacant on the date of submission; or (b) of the 12 dwelling units that are not income-restricted rental units, an excessive 13 number of long-term vacancies did not exist on the date that the preser-14 vation plan was first submitted to the department of law. For purposes 15 of this subdivision, "long-term vacancies" shall mean dwelling units not 16 leased or occupied by bona fide tenants for more than five months prior 17 to the date of such submission to the department of law; and "excessive" 18 shall mean a vacancy rate in excess of the greater of (i) ten percent 19 and (ii) a percentage that is double the normal average vacancy rate for 20 the building or group of buildings or development for two years prior to 21 the January preceding the date the preservation plan was first submitted 22 to the department of law.

23 24. All dwelling units occupied by non-purchasing tenants shall be 24 managed by the same managing agent who manages all other dwelling units 25 in the building or group of buildings or development. Such managing 26 agent shall provide to non-purchasing tenants all services and facili-27 ties required by law on a non-discriminatory basis. The offeror shall 28 guarantee the obligation of the managing agent to provide all such 29 services and facilities until such time as the offeror surrenders 30 control of the board of managers, at which time the board of managers of 31 the condominium shall assume responsibility for the provision of all 32 services and facilities required by law on a non-discriminatory basis.

33 25. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in any course of 34 conduct, including, but not limited to, interruption or discontinuance 35 of essential services, which substantially interferes with or disturbs 36 the comfort, repose, peace or quiet of any tenant in his, her or their 37 use or occupancy of his, her or their dwelling unit or the facilities 38 related thereto. The attorney general may apply to a court of competent 39 jurisdiction for an order restraining such conduct and, if he deems it 40 appropriate, an order restraining the owner from selling the dwelling 41 unit itself or from proceeding with the preservation plan of conversion; 42 provided that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to preclude the 43 tenant from applying on his, her or their own behalf for similar relief.

44 26. Any provision of a lease or other rental agreement which purports 45 to waive a tenant's rights under this section or rules and regulations 46 promulgated pursuant hereto shall be void as contrary to public policy.

47 27. Notwithstanding the requirements of this section regarding the 48 preservation of an income-restricted rental unit or units as permanently 49 affordable, and to the extent permitted under existing law as it relates 50 to the income-restricted rental unit or units, the income-restricted 51 rental unit or units in a building or group of buildings or development 52 of an eligible project may be converted to a limited equity housing 53 cooperative pursuant to article eleven of the private housing finance 54 law under a separate offering statement or prospectus, if the relevant 55 housing finance agency ensures that the proposed offering statement or 56 prospectus discloses that the regulatory agreement provides as follows:

1 (a) the offering prices are affordable to the existing tenants and/or 2 the qualified low-income purchasers who meet the definition of persons 3 of low income or families of low income as defined by subdivision nine-4 teen of section two of the private housing finance law;

5 (b) any tenant of an income-restricted rental unit that chooses not to 6 buy the income-restricted rental unit he or she occupies shall continue 7 to be protected under the rent stabilization laws and code throughout 8 the process of conversion to a limited equity housing cooperative and 9 thereafter, and that no existing tenant of an income-restricted rental 10 unit shall be evicted solely due to his or her decision not to purchase 11 his or her income-restricted rental unit;

12 (c) the regulatory agreement and certificate of incorporation of the 13 limited equity housing cooperative shall ensure that the income-res-14 tricted rental units converted to a limited equity housing cooperative 15 shall be reserved for occupancy by persons of low income and families of 16 low income in perpetuity;

17 (d) the relevant housing finance agency shall have oversight authority 18 over the limited equity housing cooperative in the regulatory agreement, 19 condominium declaration, condominium by-laws and certificate of incorpo-20 ration of the limited equity housing cooperative, including the ability 21 to appoint a new board of directors of the limited equity housing coop-22 erative in the event of a violation of a term of, or an event of default 23 by the limited equity housing cooperative under any of its governing 24 documents; and

25 (e) that the ownership of the dedicated capital account by the quali-26 fied owner, and the funding of the dedicated capital account by the 27 offeror of the preservation plan, shall each be subject to the oversight 28 authority of the relevant housing finance agency as provided in section 29 three hundred thirty-nine-mm of the real property law.

30 28. It shall be unlawful for an offeror, its designees and/or succes-31 sors to have or exercise voting control of the condominium's board of 32 managers for more than ninety days from the fifth anniversary date of 33 the first closing of title to a dwelling unit, or whenever the unsold 34 dwelling units constitute less than fifty percent of the common inter-35 ests appurtenant to all dwelling units, whichever is sooner.

36 29. The attorney general may, in his or her discretion, waive the 37 requirement in paragraph (d) of subdivision six of this section that an 38 offeror sell at least fifty-one percent of the dwelling units offered 39 for sale under the preservation plan when the offeror provides proof 40 satisfactory to the attorney general that five years of commercially 41 reasonable good faith efforts did not result in the sale of fifty-one 42 percent of the dwelling units. If such waiver is granted, the offeror 43 shall be required to disclose the new date by which it will sell at 44 least fifty-one percent of the dwelling units offered for sale under the 45 preservation plan in its subsequent annual update amendment. Any waiver 46 granted hereunder shall not alleviate an offeror, its designees and/or 47 successors of the obligation set forth in subdivision twenty-eight of 48 this section.

49 30. Within ninety days of the effective date of this section, the 50 attorney general shall submit a notice of proposed rulemaking for publi-51 cation in the state register which shall contain the suitable rules 52 necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. The authority of 53 the attorney general to promulgate, adopt, publish, notify, review, 54 amend, modify, reconsider, or rescind any rule or regulation as may be 55 conferred anywhere within this section shall comply with the state 56 administrative procedure act in all respects.

31. For any offering statement or prospectus (including, without limitation, a preservation plan and any amended filings thereto), submitted to the department of law pursuant to this section, the filing fees set forth in paragraph (a) of subdivision seven of section three hundred fifty-two-e of this article shall not apply. Instead, an offeror shall tender the following filing fee with and for its submission:

(a) seven hundred fifty dollars for every offering not in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars;

(b) for every offering in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, four-tenths of one percent of the total amount of the offering but not in excess of sixty thousand dollars, of which one-half of said amount shall be a nonrefundable deposit paid at the time of submitting the preservation plan to the department of law for review and the balance payable upon the attorney general's issuance of a letter of acceptance of the preservation plan for filing;

(c) two hundred twenty-five dollars for each price change amendment to a preservation plan;

(d) seven hundred fifty dollars for any other amendment to a preservation plan; and

(e) seven hundred fifty dollars for each such application, and an additional seven hundred fifty dollars for each and every amendment submitted in furtherance of such an application to permit an offeror to solicit public interest prior to the filing of a preservation plan to the department of law.

§ 2. Section 339-e of the real property law is amended by adding nine new subdivisions 1-a, 6-a, 7-a, 8-a, 10-a, 11-a, 12-a, 12-b and 13-a to read as follows:

1-a. "Capital replacement" means a building-wide replacement of a major component of any of the following systems:

(a) elevator;

(b) heating, ventilation and air conditioning;

(c) environmental and sustainability upgrades;

(f) window; or

(g) a major structural replacement to the building; provided, however, that major structural replacements made to cure code violations of record shall not be included.

6-a. "Consummation of the preservation plan" means, in the context of a preservation plan for the conversion of residential rental property to condominium ownership that has been accepted for filing by the department of law pursuant to section three hundred fifty-two-eeeeee of the general business law and subsequently amended to disclose that said preservation plan has been declared effective, (i) the recording of the declaration for the condominium and (ii) the closing of title to a dwelling unit with a purchaser under the preservation plan.

7-a. "Income-restricted rental unit", as used in section three hundred thirty-nine-iii of this article, means a unit that also meets the definition of "income-restricted rental unit" set forth in section three hundred fifty-two-eeeeee of the general business law.

10-a. "Preservation plan", as used in section three hundred thirty-nine-mm of this article, means an offering statement or prospectus submitted to the department of law pursuant to section three hundred fifty-two-eeee of the general business law for the conversion of a building or group of buildings or development from rental status to condominium ownership, wherein the offeror documents that it has agreed to an extended affordability term for the income-restricted rental units with a relevant housing finance agency.

11-a. "Purchaser under the preservation plan", when used in section three hundred thirty-nine-mm of this article, means a purchaser under the preservation plan shall refer to a person who purchases a dwelling unit from the offeror pursuant to the terms of a preservation plan that has been accepted for filing by the attorney general. A person or entity that acquires dwelling units and assumes certain obligations of the offeror shall not be considered a purchaser under the preservation plan.

12-a. "Qualified owner", as used in section three hundred thirty-nine-mm of this article, shall refer to a unit owner that also meets the definition of "qualified owner" as set forth in section three hundred fifty-two-eeee of the general business law.

13-a. "Total price", when used in section three hundred thirty-nine-mm of this article, means the sum of the cost of all units in the offering, but excluding any income-restricted rental units owned or to be transferred to a qualified owner, at the last price which was offered to tenants in occupancy prior to the effective date of the preservation plan regardless of the number of sales made.

§ 3. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 339-mm to read as follows:

§ 339-mm. Establishment of reserve fund and dedicated capital fund for buildings converting to condominium ownership under section three hundred fifty-two-eeee of the general business law. 1. Within thirty days after the consummation of a preservation plan, the offeror thereof (and/or its designee or designees and/or successor or successors) shall establish and transfer:

(a) to the condominium board of managers a reserve fund to be used exclusively for making capital repairs, replacements and improvements necessary for the health and safety of the residents (including residents of the income-restricted rental units) of such building or group of buildings or development. Such reserve fund shall be exclusive of any other funds required to be reserved under the preservation plan or applicable law or regulation of the attorney general, except a fund for capital repairs, replacements and improvements substantially similar in purpose to and in an amount not less than the reserve fund mandated by this section. Such reserve fund shall also be exclusive of any working capital fund or dedicated capital fund and shall not be subject to reduction for closing apportionments.

(b) to the qualified owner of the income-restricted rental units, and subject to the oversight of the relevant housing finance agency set forth in a regulatory agreement, a dedicated capital fund to be used exclusively for making unit repairs, replacements and improvements necessary for the health and safety of the residents of an income-restricted rental unit or units of such building or group of buildings or development. Such dedicated capital fund shall be exclusive and supple-

1 mental of any other funds required to be reserved under the preservation 2 plan or applicable law or regulation. Such dedicated capital fund shall 3 also be exclusive and supplemental of any reserve fund or working capi-4 tal fund and shall not be subject to reduction for closing apportion-5 ments. The dedicated capital fund shall not be used towards any build-6 ing-wide capital replacement, and instead shall be used solely for unit 7 repairs, replacements and improvements of the income-restricted rental 8 units.

9     2. (a) Such reserve fund shall be established in an amount equal to 10 either (i) three percent of the total price or, (ii) (A) three percent 11 of the actual sales price of all condominium units sold by the offeror 12 at the time the preservation plan is declared effective, provided, 13 however, that if such amount is less than one percent of the total 14 price, then the fund shall be established as a minimum of one percent of 15 the total price; plus (B) supplemental contributions to be made by the 16 offeror at a rate of three percent of the actual sales price of condo-17 minium units for each unit held by the offeror and sold to bona fide 18 purchasers subsequent to the effective date of the preservation plan and 19 within five years of the consummation of the preservation plan, notwith-20 standing that the total amount contributed may exceed three percent of 21 the total price; and provided, further, that if five years from thirty 22 days after the consummation of the preservation plan the total contrib-23 utions by the offeror to the fund are less than three percent of the 24 total price the offeror shall pay the difference between the amount 25 contributed and three percent of the total price. Supplemental contrib-26 utions shall be made within thirty days of each sale.

27     (b) Such dedicated capital fund shall be established in an amount 28 equal to one-half of one percent of the total price, and shall be trans-29 ferred in full within thirty days of the date of consummation of the 30 preservation plan into an account at a financial institution regulated 31 by the department of financial services of the state of New York that 32 shall have been opened by, and shall at all times be subject to the 33 oversight authority of the relevant housing finance agency of the quali-34 fied owner of the income-restricted rental unit or units.

35     3. The contributions required pursuant to this section may be made 36 earlier or in an amount greater than so provided. An offeror may claim 37 and receive credit against the mandatory initial contribution to the 38 reserve fund for the actual cost of capital replacements which he or she 39 has begun after the preservation plan is submitted for filing to the 40 department of law and before the preservation plan is declared effec-41 tive; provided, however, that any such replacements shall be set forth 42 in the preservation plan together with their actual or estimated costs 43 and further provided, that such credit shall not exceed the lesser of 44 the actual cost of the capital replacements or one and a half percent of 45 the total price.

46     4. Any building, construction of which was completed within three 47 years prior to the consummation of the preservation plan, shall be 48 exempt from the reserve fund requirements of this section but not the 49 dedicated capital fund requirements of this section.

50     5. The condominium board of managers shall report to unit owners on a 51 semi-annual basis with respect to all deposits into and withdrawals from 52 the reserve fund mandated by paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this 53 section.

54     6. The offeror, not later than the thirtieth day following the accept-55 ance of a preservation plan for filing by the department of law pursuant 56 to section three hundred fifty-two-eeeeee of the general business law and

1 until the consummation of the preservation plan, shall post and maintain 2 in a prominent place, accessible to all tenants in each building covered 3 by the preservation plan, a listing of all violations of record against 4 such buildings as determined by the department of buildings of the city
5 of New York and the department of housing preservation and development 6 of the city of New York. All newly issued violations shall be posted 7 within forty-eight hours of their issuance and maintained as described 8 in this subdivision. The offeror may satisfy the requirements of this 9 section by designating an agent on the premises with whom such listing 10 shall be made available for inspection by the tenants.

11 7. Any provision purporting to waive the provisions of this section in 12 any contract to purchase, any agreement between an offeror and a unit 13 purchaser, any agreement between an offeror and the condominium board of 14 managers created under a preservation plan, any agreement between an 15 offeror and the owner of the income-restricted rental unit or units 16 shall be void as against public policy.

17 8. (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivi-18 sion, any person who knowingly violates or assists in the violation of 19 any provision of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of one 20 hundred dollars per day per unit for each day that a building is not in 21 compliance with the provisions of such section; provided, however, that 22 such civil penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars per unit.

23 (b) Any person who violates or assists in the violation of subdivision 24 two of this section shall also be subject to a civil penalty of one 25 thousand dollars per day for each day that the reserve fund required by 26 subdivision two of this section is not established; provided, however, 27 that such civil penalty shall not exceed the amount required to be 28 reserved pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

29 (c) Any other action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdic-30 tion that may be appropriate or necessary for the enforcement of the 31 provisions of this section may be brought in the name of the people of 32 the state of New York by the attorney general, including actions to 33 secure permanent injunctions enjoining any acts or practices which 34 constitute a violation of any provision of this section, mandating 35 compliance with the provisions of this section or for such other relief 36 as may be appropriate. In any such action or proceeding, the attorney 37 general may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction, or to a judge 38 or justice thereof, for a temporary restraining order or preliminary 39 injunction enjoining and restraining all persons from violating any 40 provision of this section, mandating compliance with the provisions of 41 this section, or for such other relief as may be appropriate, until the 42 hearing and determination of such action or proceeding and the entry of 43 final judgment or order therein. The court, or judge or justice thereof, 44 to whom such application is made, is hereby authorized to make any or 45 all of the orders specified in this paragraph, as may be required in 46 such application, with or without notice, and to make such other or 47 further orders or directions as may be necessary to render the same 48 effectual. No undertaking shall be required as a condition of the grant-49 ing or issuing of such order, or by reason thereof.

50 (d) Nothing contained in this section shall impair any rights, reme-51 dies or causes of action accrued or accruing to purchasers of condomin-52 ium units with regard to the funding of the reserve fund and capital 53 fund under this section.

54 (e) The attorney general is empowered to enforce the provisions of 55 this section.

§ 4.
