AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the retaking of certain persons absconding from parole or other conditional release

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 "Cesar's law".
- 3 § 2. Paragraph (i) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive 4 law, as amended by section 38-f-1 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- (i) Where there is reasonable cause to believe that a presumptive 7 releasee, parolee, conditional releasee or person under post-release 8 supervision has absconded from supervision the board [may shall declare such person to be delinquent and a warrant shall be issued for the 10 retaking of such person and for his or her temporary detention according to the rules of the board, and the board shall immediately notify the 11 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction of the locality in which such 13 absconder resides. This paragraph shall not be construed to deny such 14 person a preliminary revocation hearing upon his or her retaking, nor to 15 relieve the department of any obligation it may have to exercise due 16 diligence to retake the alleged absconder, nor to relieve the parolee or 17 releasee of any obligation he or she may have to comply with the condi-18 tions of his or her release.
- 19 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
