

STATE OF NEW YORK

4430

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

February 8, 2023

Introduced by Sen. FERNANDEZ -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to unlawful discriminatory practices based upon delays in reporting workplace sexual harassment, and in relation to extending the statute of limitations in cases before the state division of human rights of sexual harassment in the workplace; and to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to extending the statute of limitations in cases of sexual harassment in the workplace

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "no right 2 time act".
- 3 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law is amended by 4 adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:
- 5 (i) For any employer, labor organization or employment agency to 6 restrict the timeframe during which an employee may bring a sexual 7 harassment claim, unless such restriction is in accordance with the 8 statute of limitations currently provided for in state law or to 9 discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because he 10 or she has delayed in reporting or filing a complaint regarding sexual 11 harassment in the workplace. As used in this paragraph "sexual harass-12 ment" means an unlawful discriminatory practice on the basis of sex that 13 is based on unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and 14 other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
- 15 § 3. Subdivision 5 of section 297 of the executive law, as amended by 16 chapter 160 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- 17 5. Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed with-18 in one year after the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice. In cases 19 of sexual harassment in employment, any complaint filed pursuant to this

1 section must be so filed within three years after the alleged unlawful 2 discriminatory practices; provided that in cases of sexual harassment, 3 the complaint must be so filed within the later of:

4 (a) three years after the aggrieved person files a complaint with his 5 or her employer; or (b) if the aggrieved person does not file a 6 complaint with his or her employer, three years after he or she ceases 7 to be employed by that employer.

8 § 4. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 9 section 213-e to read as follows:

10 § 213-e. Action by a victim of sexual harassment in the workplace.
11 Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article, a civil 12 claim or cause of action alleging sexual harassment in the workplace 13 brought by a person to recover damages from his or her employer for 14 physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such 15 person as a result of acts by such employer may be brought within the 16 later of:

17 1. three years after the person files a complaint with his or her 18 employer; or

19 2. if the person does not file a complaint with his or her employer, 20 three years after he or she ceases to be employed by that employer.

21 § 5. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 22 have become a law.
