Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under 10 non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged with a qualifying offense  $[\frac{\text{which is a felony}}{\text{offense}}]$ , the court may commit the 12 principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with 13 a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she stands charged with:

(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a 16 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 19 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be 20 arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person 22 or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as 23 defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that 24 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant 25 committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes 26 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a quali-

(v) any of the following aggravated family offenses as defined in section 240.75 of the penal law where the principal and the person against whom the offense was committed were members of the same family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11; an offense defined in section 120.00 (assault in the third degree); section 120.13 (menacing in the first degree); section 120.14 (menacing in the second degree); section 120.15 (menacing in the third degree); section 120.20 (reckless endangerment in the second degree); section 120.45 (stalking in the fourth degree); section 120.50 (stalking in the third degree); section 120.55 (stalking in the second degree); section 121.11 (criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation); subdivision one of section 125.15 (manslaughter in the second degree); section 135.05 (unlawful imprisonment in the second degree); section 135.10 (unlawful imprisonment in the first degree); section 135.60 (coercion in the third degree); section 135.61 (coercion in the second degree); section 135.65 (coercion in the first degree); section 140.20 (burglary in the third degree); section 140.25 (burglary in the second degree); section 145.00 (criminal mischief in the fourth degree); section 145.05 (criminal mischief in the third degree); section 145.10 (criminal mischief in the second degree); section 145.12 (criminal mischief in the first degree); section 145.14 (criminal tampering in the third degree); section 240.25 (harassment in the first degree); subdivision one, two or four of section 240.30 (aggravated harassment in the second degree) of the penal law; or any attempt or conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing offenses.

§ 2. The opening paragraph and subparagraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, the opening paragraph as amended by section 3 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, paragraph (xx) as amended and paragraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new subparagraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged with a qualifying offense [which is a felony], the court may commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. The court shall explain its choice of release, release with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing. A principal stands charged with a qualifying offense when he or she stands charged with:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a 56 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such S. 4484 3
