AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to establishing a requirement that instruction in financial education be provided to all pupils in grades nine, ten, eleven or twelve

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 803-c 2 to read as follows:

3 § 803-c. Instruction relating to financial education. 1. All pupils in 4 grades nine, ten, eleven or twelve in all public schools in the state 5 shall receive a course or full unit of instruction in financial educa-
6 tion delivered by means of a comprehensive financial literacy program.

7 2. The requirements of this section may be fulfilled through the 8 finance unit of the required high school economics course or the contin-
9 uation of financial management courses currently being taught in public 10 secondary schools. Additional courses are encouraged to be developed and 11 approved at the local level.

12 3. The board of education or trustees of the school district is 13 charged with developing and maintaining a financial literacy program for 14 secondary school pupils that shall include, but not be limited to, 15 instruction in the following:

16 a. recognizing the relationship between financial planning and attain-17 ing financial goals;

18 b. opening and maintaining banking and checking accounts and assessing 19 the quality of banking services;
