AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to notice of eligibility for unemployment benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 590 of the labor law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 2 to read as follows:

3 2. Notice of eligibility upon separation from employment. Every 4 employer liable under this article for contributions shall inform each 5 employee of their right to file an application for unemployment benefits
6 with the department. Such information shall be given at the time of each 7 permanent or indefinite separation from employment, reduction in hours, 8 temporary separation, and any other interruption of continued employment 9 that results in total or partial unemployment. Such notice shall be 10 given in writing on a form furnished or approved by the department and 11 shall include:

12 (a) the employer's name and registration number;

13 (b) the address of the employer to which a request for remuneration
14 and employment information with respect to such employee must be 15 directed; and

16 (c) such other information as is required by the commissioner.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 18 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
