2 ~~however, that no such certificate shall apply, or be construed so as to~~

13 in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, permit, employ-

30 3. A certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration shall not, 31 however, in any way prevent any judicial, administrative, licensing or 32 other body, board or authority from relying upon the conviction speci-33 fied therein as the basis for the exercise of its discretionary power to 34 suspend, revoke, refuse to issue or refuse to renew any license, permit 35 or other authority or privilege.

36 § 3. Section 702 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 342 of 37 the laws of 1972, the section heading as amended by chapter 931 of the 38 laws of 1976, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 488 of the laws of 39 2011, subdivision 3 as amended by section 64 of part A of chapter 56 of 40 the laws of 2010 and subdivisions 4 and 6 as amended by section 32 of 41 subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to 42 read as follows:

43 § 702. Certificates of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued 44 by courts. 1. Any court of this state [~~may, in its discretion,~~] shall, 45 absent a finding that issuance of such certificate will jeopardize 46 public safety, issue a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] resto-47 ration at the time of sentencing to an eligible offender for a 48 conviction that occurred in such court, if the court [~~either (a) imposed~~ 49 ~~a revocable sentence or (b)~~] imposed a sentence other than one executed 50 by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state 51 department of corrections and community supervision. Such certificate 52 [~~may be~~] issued [~~(i)~~] at the time sentence is pronounced[, ~~in which case~~ 53 ~~it~~] may grant relief from forfeitures, as well as from disabilities[, ~~or~~ 54 ~~(ii) at any time thereafter, in which case it shall apply only to dis-~~ 55 ~~abilities~~]. Where such court either imposes a revocable sentence or 56 imposes a sentence other than one executed by commitment to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision, the court, upon application and in accordance with subdivision two of this section, shall initially determine the fitness of an eligible offender for such certificate prior to or at the time sentence is pronounced. Where the court finds that issuance of the certificate at sentencing will jeopardize public safety, such certificate shall be issued as follows:

(a) for an offender who receives a revocable sentence, such offender shall be issued such certificate after serving one year of such revocable sentence imposed by the court provided that such offender has not been convicted of a new crime during that time and is not the subject of an undisposed arrest. Such certificate shall apply only to disabilities. In order to receive such a certificate, the eligible offender must apply to the court in which they were sentenced.

(b) for an offender who receives a definite sentence of imprisonment, such offender shall be issued such certificate one year after release from incarceration provided that such offender has not been convicted of a new crime during that time and is not the subject of an undisposed arrest. Such certificate shall apply only to disabilities. In order to receive such a certificate, the eligible offender must apply to the court in which they were sentenced.

In calculating the one-year periods under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, any period of time during which the person was incarcerated for any reason between the time of conviction and the date on which the eligible offender becomes eligible for a certificate shall be excluded and such one-year period shall be extended by a period or periods equal to the time served under such incarceration.

2. ~~[Such] The relief granted by such~~ certificate shall ~~[not be issued by the court unless the court is satisfied that]~~

~~(a) The person to whom it is to be granted is an eligible offender, as defined in section seven hundred;~~

~~(b) The relief to be granted by the certificate is]~~ be consistent with the rehabilitation of the eligible offender[+] and

~~[(c) The relief to be granted by the certificate is]~~ be consistent with the public interest.

3. ~~[Where a certificate of relief from disabilities is not issued at the time sentence is pronounced it shall only be issued thereafter upon verified application to the court. The court may, for the purpose of determining whether such certificate shall be issued, request its probation service to conduct an investigation of the applicant, or if the court has no probation service it may request the probation service of the county court for the county in which the court is located to conduct such investigation. Any probation officer requested to make an investigation pursuant to this section shall prepare and submit to the court a written report in accordance with such request.~~

4.] Where the court has imposed a revocable sentence and the certificate of ~~[relief from disabilities]~~ restoration is issued prior to the expiration or termination of the time which the court may revoke such sentence, the certificate shall be deemed to be a temporary certificate until such time as the court's authority to revoke the sentence has expired or is terminated. While temporary, such certificate (a) may be revoked by the court for violation of the conditions of the sentence, and (b) shall be revoked by the court if it revokes the sentence and commits the person to an institution under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and community supervision. Any such revocation shall be upon notice and after an opportunity to be heard. If the

1 certificate is not so revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate 2 upon expiration or termination of the court's authority to revoke the 3 sentence.

4 [5] 4. Any court that has issued a certificate of [~~relief from disa-~~
5 ~~ilities~~] restoration may at any time issue a new certificate to enlarge 6 the relief previously granted, provided, however, that the provisions of 7 subdivisions one through [~~four~~] three of this section shall apply to the 8 issuance of any such new certificate.

9 [~~6-~~] 5. Any written report submitted to the court [~~pursuant to~~] for 10 the purposes of this section is confidential and may not be made avail-11 able to any person or public or private agency except where specifically 12 required or permitted by statute or upon specific authorization of the 13 court. However, upon the court's receipt of such report, the court shall 14 provide a copy of such report, or direct that such report be provided to 15 the applicant's attorney, or the applicant himself, if he or she has no 16 attorney. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part 17 or parts of the report which are not relevant to the granting of a 18 certificate, or sources of information which have been obtained on a 19 promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of 20 which would not be in the interest of justice. The action of the court 21 excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate 22 review. The court, in its discretion, may hold a conference in open 23 court or in chambers to afford an applicant an opportunity to controvert 24 or to comment upon any portions of the report. The court may also 25 conduct a summary hearing at the conference on any matter relevant to 26 the granting of the application and may take testimony under oath.

27 § 4. Section 703 of the correction law, as amended by section 34 of 28 subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to 29 read as follows:

30 § 703. Certificates of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued 31 by the department of corrections and community supervision. 1. The 32 department of corrections and community supervision shall [~~have the~~ 33 ~~power to~~] issue a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration 34 to:

35 (a) any eligible offender who has been committed to an institution
36 under the jurisdiction of the state department of corrections and commu-37 nity supervision who successfully earned merit time or a certificate of 38 earned eligibility during their period of incarceration. Such certif-39 icate [~~may~~] shall be issued by the department at the time the offender 40 is released from such institution under the department's supervision [~~or~~ 41 ~~otherwise or at any time thereafter~~]. If such eligible offender did not 42 earn merit time or a certificate of earned eligibility, the board of 43 parole shall issue such certificate at the time of such eligible 44 offender's release to community supervision unless it is determined that 45 the issuance of such certificate would jeopardize public safety. If such 46 certificate is not issued upon such eligible offender's release to 47 community supervision, such offender shall be issued a certificate by 48 the board of parole after two years of unrevoked parole, conditional 49 release or post-release supervision. Such individual shall apply to the 50 board of parole in order to receive such certificate.

51 In calculating the two-year period under this paragraph, any period of 52 time during which the person was incarcerated for any reason between the 53 time of conviction and the date on which the eligible offender becomes 54 eligible for a certificate shall be excluded and such two-year period 55 shall be extended by a period or periods equal to the time served under 56 such incarceration;

1 (b) any eligible offender who resides within this state and whose 2 judgment of conviction was rendered by a court in any other jurisdiction 3 where such eligible offender applies for such certificate, is not incar-4 cerated at the time of the application and is not subject to an undis-5 posed arrest, unless the board of parole determines that the issuance of 6 such certificate would jeopardize public safety. If a certificate of 7 restoration is not issued at the time of the application, the board 8 shall issue a certificate to such eligible offender one year after the 9 date of the application where the judgment of conviction was for a 10 misdemeanor and two years after the date of the application where the 11 judgment of conviction was for a felony, provided that such offender has 12 not been convicted of a new crime and is not the subject of an undis-13 posed arrest.

14 2. Where the department has issued a certificate of [~~relief from disa-~~ 15 ~~bilities~~] restoration, the department may at any time issue a new 16 certificate enlarging the relief previously granted.

17 3. The relief granted by the department [~~shall not issue any~~] in a 18 certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration pursuant to 19 [~~subdivisions~~] subdivision one or two[, ~~unless the department is satis-~~ 20 ~~fied that,~~

21 ~~(a) The person to whom it is to be granted is an eligible offender, as~~ 22 ~~defined in section seven hundred;~~

23 ~~(b) The relief to be granted by the certificate is] of this section~~ 24 shall be consistent with the rehabilitation of the eligible offender[+] 25 and

26 [~~(c) The relief to be granted by the certificate is] be~~ consistent 27 with the public interest.

28 4. Any certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration issued by 29 the department to an eligible offender who at time of the issuance of 30 the certificate is under the department's supervision, shall be deemed 31 to be a temporary certificate until such time as the eligible offender 32 is discharged from the department's supervision, and, while temporary, 33 such certificate may be revoked by the department for violation of the 34 conditions of community supervision. Revocation shall be upon notice to 35 the releasee, who shall be accorded an opportunity to explain the 36 violation prior to decision thereon. If the certificate is not so 37 revoked, it shall become a permanent certificate upon expiration or 38 termination of the department's jurisdiction over the individual.

39 5. In granting or revoking a certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] 40 restoration the action of the department shall be deemed a judicial 41 function and shall not be reviewable if done according to law.

42 6. For the purpose of determining whether such certificate shall be 43 issued, the department may conduct an investigation of the applicant.

44 7. Presumption based on federal recommendation. Where a certificate of 45 [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration is sought pursuant to paragraph 46 (b) of subdivision one of this section on a judgment of conviction 47 rendered by a federal district court in this state and the department is 48 in receipt of a written recommendation in favor of the issuance of such 49 certificate from the chief probation officer of the district, the 50 department shall issue the requested certificate, unless it finds that 51 the requirements of [~~paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of~~] subdivision three 52 of this section have not been satisfied; or that the interests of 53 justice would not be advanced by the issuance of the certificate.

4 certificate of [~~relief from disabilities~~] restoration is deemed to be 5 temporary and such certificate is revoked, disabilities and forfeitures 6 thereby relieved shall be reinstated as of the date upon which the 7 person to whom the certificate was issued receives written notice of 8 such revocation. Any such person shall upon receipt of such notice 9 surrender the certificate to the issuing court or board.

10 2. A person who knowingly uses or attempts to use, a revoked certifi-
