3 student loans for eight years and, upon the completion of the program's

8 state university of New York college at the end of the program, an 9 amount equal to the difference between (a) four times the current 10 tuition rate at a state university of New York college or the initial 11 principal on the recipient's student loans, whichever is less, and (b)

13 shall be issued to the recipient. In the event that a recipient fails to 14 maintain eligibility in the program, no further payments shall be made

41 award multiplied by the years the recipient fulfilled his or her 42 requirements under subdivision three of this section divided by eight.

43 (c) Notwithstanding any provisions of this paragraph to the contrary,

52 recording how much each recipient owes in student loans at any time, how 53 much each recipient had taken out in principal in student loans and how 54 much has been paid on each recipient's student loans by the program.

55 6. Rules and regulations. The office is authorized to promulgate rules 56 and regulations, and may promulgate emergency regulations, necessary for
