- (a) to have any foreclosure on any real property tax lien pursuant to section nine hundred two of this chapter be a judicial proceeding specific to each parcel;
- (b) where the property is the primary residence of an owner entitled to tax exemption based on age, disability, or veteran status, a foreclosure may not be maintained;
- 9 (c) to not have exemptions removed or waived for nonpayment of proper-10 ty taxes;
 - (d) to be informed of the amount of tax due, the number of tax years for which the parcel has been in arrears, the date on which the redemption period ends, the accepted forms of payment, the location where payments shall be made, and the contact information for the responsible taxing authority, including but not limited to, the taxpayer advocate or other similar office within the taxing authority working with homeowners to resolve tax arrears;
 - (e) to receive pre-foreclosure notices, which shall be conditions precedent to maintenance of a foreclosure on any tax lien governed by the service requirements of section thirteen hundred four of the real property actions and proceedings law;
 - (f) to participate in a mandatory settlement conference process equivalent to the process required in mortgage foreclosure actions pursuant to rule thirty-four hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules, which shall be governed by the same good faith negotiation standard governing that provision, with the goal of: (i) negotiating a mutually agreeable resolution to avert foreclosure, including, but not limited to, establishing an affordable repayment plan, abatement of fees, penalties or other charges, forbearance of amounts due, or other home saving resolution; or (ii) whatever other purposes the court deems appropriate. A party prosecuting a tax lien foreclosure shall be prohibited from charging the homeowner for any fees associated with participating in the settlement conference. Explicitly incorporated into this bill of rights are subdivisions (c) through (n) of rule thirty-four hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules, and the office of court administration shall within ninety days of the effective date of this section promulgate rules implementing this mandatory settlement conference process which shall adapt the foregoing subdivisions to the needs of tax lien foreclosure cases and which shall, without limitation, include a notice of the scheduling of the conference that shall require the parties to appear at the conference with required information for a meaningful conference and with authority to engage in settlement negotiations;
- 43 (g) to apply any payments toward delinquent taxes in the order 44 which the liens became due;
- 45 (h) in the event that a residence is foreclosed upon, to receive any 46 surplus following the sale of the property after the tax lien is satis-47 fied ahead of unsecured creditors pursuant to section fifty-two hundred 48 six of the civil practice law and rules; and
- (i) where there is a transfer to a municipality pursuant to section eleven hundred thirty-six of this article or where there is a foreclo-50 sure auction with no bidders and the municipality takes possession of 52 the property, any subsequent sale of the property must be an arm's length transaction in which the owner has an absolute right to any surplus funds.
- 3. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new section 55 56 1185-a to read as follows:

- 1 § 1185-a. Pre-foreclosure notices. (a) The pre-foreclosure notice
- 2 required in subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred eighty-five of
- 3 this article shall appear as follows:
- 4 "YOU MAY BE AT RISK OF FORECLOSURE ON A PROPERTY TAX LIEN
- 5 PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING NOTICE CAREFULLY.
- 6 As of (date), your property taxes have not been paid for the following
- 7 years and amounts each year:
- 8 The total needed to pay off all tax arrears as of the date of this
- 9 notice is:
- 10 Under New York State law, we are required to send you this notice to
- 11 inform you that you are at risk of losing your home.
- 12 Attached to this notice is a list of government approved housing coun-
- 13 seling agencies in your area which provide free counseling. You can also
- 14 call the NYS Office of the Attorney General's Homeowner Protection
- 15 Program (HOPP) toll-free consumer hotline to be connected to free hous-
- 16 ing counseling or legal services in your area at 1-855-HOME-456 (1-855-
- 17 466-3456), or visit their website at http://www.aghomehelp.com. A state-
- 18 wide listing by county is also available at https://www.dfs.ny.gov/
- 19 consumer/mortg nys np counseling agencies.html. Qualified free help is
- 20 available; watch out for companies or people who charge a fee for these
- 21 services.
- 22 Housing counselors from New York-based agencies listed on the website
- 23 above are trained to help homeowners who are having problems making
- 24 their tax payments and can help you find the best option for your situ-
- 25 ation. If you wish, you may also contact our office directly at
- 26 or our taxpayer advocate at , who is responsible
- 27 for working with homeowners to resolve tax arrears, and ask to discuss
- 28 possible payment plans and other options.
- 29 PLEASE NOTE THAT IF YOU ARE A SENIOR CITIZEN, PHYSICALLY DISABLED,
- 30 AND/OR A VETERAN, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A PARTIAL EXEMPTION FROM PROP-
- 31 ERTY TAXES or to have tax foreclosure delayed. The following exemptions
- 32 that local rules allow that could prevent foreclosure in your case are:
- 33 Senior Citizen
- 34 Veteran
- 35 Physical Disability
- 36 We encourage you to contact our taxpayer advocate at the telephone
- 37 number above if you have any questions about whether you qualify for any
- 38 of these exemptions.
- 39 While we cannot assure that a mutually agreeable resolution is possible,
- 40 we encourage you to take immediate steps to try to achieve a resolution.
- 41 The longer you wait, the fewer options you may have.
- 42 If you have not taken any actions to resolve this matter within 90 days
- 43 from the date this notice was mailed (or sooner if you cease to live in
- 44 the dwelling as your primary residence), we may commence legal action or
- 45 other remedies against you to foreclose the tax lien, which may eventu-
- 46 ally result in eviction from your home.
- 47 Under New York State law, you may be barred from entering into a payment
- 48 plan or from being permitted to make any payment to save your home after
- 49 the "Redemption Date".
- 51 IMPORTANT: You have the right to remain in your home until you receive a
- 52 court order telling you to leave the property; however, you may lose the
- 53 right to continue ownership of your home after the Redemption Date. If a
- 54 foreclosure action is filed against you in court, you still have the 55 right to remain in the home until a court orders you to leave.

1 This notice is not an eviction notice, and a foreclosure action has not 2 yet been commenced against you."

- 3 (b) The notice required in subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred 4 eighty-five of this article shall be sent by such taxing authority or 5 purchaser of delinquent tax liens to the homeowner (or heirs or distributees if the homeowner is deceased), by registered or certified mail 7 and also by first-class mail to the last known address of the homeowner, and to the residence subject to the tax lien. The notices required by 9 subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred eighty-five of this article 10 shall be sent by the taxing authority or purchaser of delinquent tax 11 liens in a separate envelope from any other mailing or notice. Notice 12 is considered given as of the date it is mailed. The notice required by subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred eighty-five of this article 13 14 shall contain a current list of at least five housing counseling agencies serving the county where the property is located from the most 15 recent listing available from the department of financial services. The 16 17 list shall include the counseling agencies' last known addresses and telephone numbers. The department of financial services shall make 18 available on its website a listing, by county, of such agencies. The 19 20 taxing authority or purchaser of delinquent tax liens shall use such 21 lists to meet the requirements of this section.
- 22 (c) For any homeowner known to have limited English proficiency, the 23 notice required by subdivision (e) of section eleven hundred eighty-five of this article shall be in the homeowner's native language (or a 24 language in which the homeowner is proficient), provided that the 25 language is one of the six most common non-English languages spoken by 26 27 individuals with limited English proficiency in the state of New York, 28 based on United States census data. The department of financial services shall post the notices required by subdivision (e) of section eleven 29 30 hundred eighty-five of this article on its website in the six most common non-English languages spoken by individuals with limited English 31 proficiency in the state of New York, based on the United States census 32 data. 33
- 34 § 4. Section 1104 of the real property tax law is amended by adding a 35 new subdivision 3 to read as follows:
- 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, every county, city and town shall comply with the requirements of sections eleven hundred eighty-five and eleven hundred eighty-five-a of this article.
- 40 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
