AN ACT to amend the navigation law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to revoking a person's driver's license following the conviction of operating a vessel while under the influence of alcohol or drugs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 49-a of the navigation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

3-a. Privilege to operate a motor vehicle; suspension. The court shall suspend a person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle and may suspend a motor vehicle registration in the same manner as defined under subdivision two of section eleven hundred ninety-three of the vehicle and traffic law where an operator is convicted of a violation of paragraph (a), (b), (d) or (e) of subdivision two of this section or a violation of section forty-nine-b of this part.

§ 2. Clause (c) of subparagraph 12 of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 1193 of the vehicle and traffic law, as added by chapter 732 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

(c) For revocations or suspensions imposed pursuant to clause (a) of this subparagraph and subdivision 3-a of section forty-nine-a of the navigation law, the commissioner may adopt rules to permit conditional or restricted operation of a motor vehicle by any such person after a mandatory revocation period of not less than three years subject to such criteria, terms and conditions as established by the commissioner.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
