1 (c) The recovery of such overpayment would be against equity and good 2 conscience.

3 (3) When determining whether an overpayment was received without fault
4 on the part of the claimant, the commissioner shall consider the follow-
5 ing factors:

6 (a) The nature and cause of such overpayment and the capacity of the 7 claimant to recognize the error resulting in such overpayment;

8 (b) Whether the claimant knew or reasonably should have known that he 9 or she was not lawfully entitled to receive such benefits;

10 (c) Whether the benefits were received or retained because of the 11 claimant's good faith reliance on an administrative or departmental 12 error; and

13 (d) Whether the claimant negligently reported or failed to report
14 information which resulted in such overpayment.

15 (4) When determining whether the recovery of any overpayment would be 16 against equity and good conscience, the commissioner shall consider if 17 such repayment would impose extraordinary hardship, including financial 18 hardship, on the claimant or the claimant's household.

19 (5) (a) In the event that a new determination by the commissioner or a 20 decision by a referee, the appeal board, or a court results in a 21 decrease or denial of any benefits previously allowed, or at any other 22 time it has been determined that an overpayment has occurred, the claim-23 ant shall be notified in writing, by mail or electronically, within 24 fifteen days of such determination or decision of his or her right to 25 appeal such determination or decision and to request a waiver of recov-

29 payment;

30 (ii) The schedule of repayment for such amounts overpaid;

31 (iii) The means by which the commissioner is entitled to collect or 32 recover such overpayment;

33 (iv) An explanation of the claimant's right to appeal such determi-34 nation or decision in accordance with the provisions of this article and 35 any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;

36 (v) An explanation of the standards by which a claimant shall not be 37 found liable for the amounts overpaid, as set forth in this section; and

38 (vi) The process by which the claimant may request and obtain a waiver 39 of recovery of such overpayment.

40 (b) The commissioner shall review each waiver request in a manner
41 consistent with conditions set forth in subdivisions one and two of this 42 section to determine whether the claimant shall be held liable for any 43 amounts overpaid. Any claimant who is found not to be liable for any 44 amounts overpaid shall be entitled to receive a full waiver of such 45 overpayment and any penalties and/or interest incurred as a result of 46 such overpayment.

47 (6) (a) Upon the denial of any waiver request, or upon any other 48 determination by the commissioner or a decision by a referee, the appeal
49 board, or a court that a claimant shall be held liable for any overpay-
50 ment, the claimant shall be notified in writing, by mail or electron-51 ically, within fifteen days of such determination or decision. Such 52 notice shall set forth the reason for such denial, if applicable, and 53 his or her right to request an adjustment to his or her repayment sched-
54 ule.

55 (b) The commissioner shall grant an adjustment to the claimant's 56 repayment schedule if at any time the claimant is able to demonstrate
