§ 3.01. Legislative findings and declaration of policy. It is hereby found that many of our citizens lack the opportunity to view, enjoy or participate in living cultural and theatrical performances, musical concerts, operas, dance and ballet recitals, art exhibits, examples of fine architecture, racial and social justice, and the performing and fine arts generally. It is hereby further found that, with increasing leisure time, the practice and enjoyment of the arts and culture are of 10 increasing importance and that the general welfare of the people of the 11 state will be promoted by giving further recognition to the arts and 12 culture as a vital aspect of our culture and heritage and as a valued 13 means of expanding the scope of our educational programs and funding to reflect cultural diversity and equity.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to join with private patrons and with institutions [and], professional organizations, 16 17 and culture-based organizations concerned with [the] arts and culture to insure that cultural preservation and development and the role of the 19 arts in the life of our communities will continue to grow and will play 20 an ever more significant part in the welfare and educational experience 21 of our citizens and in maintaining the paramount position of this state 22 in the nation and in the world as a cultural center.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
