7 follows:

8 2. (a) Party recommendations for election commissioner shall be made 9 by the county committee or by such other committee as the rules of the 10 party may provide, by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the 11 members of such committee at which a quorum is present. If at any time a 14 shall be made by the county committee or by such other committee as the 15 rules of the party may provide, by a majority of the votes cast at a

18 York or to fill a vacancy in such office shall be made by the county 19 committee or by such other committee as the rules of the party may 20 provide, by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the members of 31 public hearing. Provided, however, that if a legislative body shall 32 fail to appoint any person recommended by a party for appointment as a 33 commissioner pursuant to this section, within thirty days after the 34 filing of a certificate of recommendation with such legislative body, 35 then the members of such legislative body who are members of the poli-36 tical party which filed such certificate may appoint such person. And 37 further provided, if there are no members of the legislative body who 38 are members of the political party which filed such certificate, the 39 appointment shall take effect upon the expiration of thirty days from 40 the date that the certificate was filed. If none of the persons named in 41 any of the certificates filed by a party are so appointed within sixty 42 days after the filing of any such certificate, then such party may file 43 another certificate within thirty days after the expiration of any such 44 sixty day period recommending a different person for such appointment.

45 If a party fails to file a certificate within the time prescribed by 46 this section, the members of the legislative body who are members of 47 such party may appoint any eligible person to such office.

48 § 4. The section heading of section 3-212 of the election law is 49 amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

50 Boards of elections; organization, proceedings, reports and records;
51 budget reporting in the city of New York.

52 6. If, at any time during the city fiscal year of the city of New 53 York, the director of management and budget of such city determines that 54 the expenditures of the board of elections of the city of New York are 55 reasonably likely to exceed appropriations to such board for personnel 56 services or other than personnel services for a quarter of the fiscal

1 year, based upon a reasonable allotment by such director of such appro-2 priations to such quarter, or for the entire fiscal year, such director 3 shall provide written notice of such determination to the executive 4 director of such board, the mayor of such city, the speaker of the city 5 council of such city, and the public advocate of such city, together 6 with any relevant requests for additional data or information that the 7 director determines to be material to such board's level of expendi-8 tures. Within twenty days of receiving such notice, such executive 9 director shall submit to such director, mayor, public advocate and 10 speaker a projection of whether and by what amount it will exceed its 11 appropriations for personnel services and other than personnel services 12 for each quarter and the entire fiscal year, together with a detailed 13 explanation of the needs justifying any such projected excess expendi-14 tures. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prevent the 15 director from requiring the furnishing of data and information, and 16 answers to pertinent inquiries, at any time in accordance with section 17 two hundred twenty-five of the New York city charter.

18 § 5. Section 3-300 of the election law is amended to read as follows:

19 § 3-300. Board employees; appointment. [~~Every~~] 1. Except as provided

23 duties, fix their titles and rank and establish their salaries within 24 the amounts appropriated therefor by the local legislative body [~~and~~ 25 ~~shall secure in the appointment of employees of the board of elections~~
26 ~~equal representation of the major political parties~~]. Every commissioner 27 in each board of elections except for commissioners of the board of 28 elections of the city of New York, may approve and at pleasure remove a 29 deputy, establish his or her title and prescribe his or her duties. [~~In~~]

30 2. There shall be equal representation of the major political parties 31 among those employees of the board of elections charged with the duty of 32 qualifying voters, distributing ballots to voters, or receiving, record-33 ing or counting votes at elections.

34 3. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of general, special or local law, 35 in the city of New York, [~~the board of elections shall appoint~~] an exec-36 utive director [~~and a deputy executive director whose duties it shall be~~ 37 ~~to supervise the operations of the board of elections under the super-~~ 38 ~~vision of such board~~] shall be appointed and may be removed, in a manner 39 set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. It shall be their duty 40 to supervise the operations of the board of elections in accordance with 41 this subdivision. The executive director shall be selected following a 42 nationwide search for qualified and experienced candidates. They shall 43 serve a term of four years.

44 (b) The board of elections of the city of New York shall advise the 45 executive director on matters of policy affecting the administration of 46 elections in the city of New York. Except as expressly provided in this 47 subdivision, such board shall exercise no executive power and perform no 48 executive or administrative functions. Except as expressly provided in 49 this subdivision, such board shall make no individualized decisions 50 concerning the employment of any specific person or the registration, 51 pre-registration, enrollment or qualifications of any specific voter or 52 applicant. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require or 53 authorize the day-to-day supervision of the executive director by the 54 board. The board may delegate powers and duties conferred upon the board 55 to the executive director, to be exercised consistent with paragraph (e) 56 of this subdivision. In the case of a vacancy, an executive director

1 shall be appointed to serve the remainder of the unexpired term accord-2 ing to the original manner of appointment of the previous executive 3 director.

4 (c)(1) For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (f) of this 5 subdivision, the term "appointing authorities" shall mean the mayor of 6 the city of New York, the speaker of the city council of such city, and 7 the public advocate of such city, who shall act pursuant to this subdivi-8 sion by concurring action of at least two of such officials, provided 9 that the mayor shall be one of the concurring officials.

10 (2) No earlier than the first day of January and no later than the 11 first day of February in two thousand twenty-four and in every calendar 12 year thereafter during which the four-year term of the executive direc-13 tor is to expire, the commissioners of election for each political party 14 shall file one or more certificates of party recommendation with the 15 appointing authorities, as described in this paragraph.

16 (3) Party recommendations for executive director shall be made by the 17 commissioner of election for each political party. Such commissioner 18 shall recommend no fewer than three candidates for the position of exec-
19 utive director. If at any time a vacancy occurs in the office of execu-20 tive director other than by expiration of term of office, or if a 21 request for additional candidates is made by the appointing authorities 22 pursuant to subparagraph four of this paragraph, party recommendations 23 to fill such vacancy shall be made within thirty days. If fewer than 24 three candidates are recommended in a timely manner by the commissioner 25 of election for the applicable political party then the members of the 26 city council who are members of the applicable political party may, by 27 majority vote of such members, file certificates of party recommendation 28 with the appointing authorities within fifteen days after the expiration 29 of the time for filing by the commissioners of election, so as to 30 increase the total number of candidates to three. If the members of the 31 city council from one political party do not recommend any candidates, 32 the appointing authorities will choose from the list of candidates 33 submitted.

34 (4) Candidates considered for executive director must satisfy all 35 qualifications required for local officers pursuant to the public offi-36 cers law. Further, no later than December thirty-first, two thousand 37 twenty-three, the state board of elections shall prescribe additional 38 qualifications for the position of executive director, which shall apply 39 to recommendations and appointments made thereafter. Such qualifications 40 shall thereafter be reviewed by such board at least every two years 41 and updated as necessary, and shall be prescribed only after consid-42 eration of the skills and knowledge necessary or useful for the exercise 43 of the duties and responsibilities of the executive director, as well 44 as the ability to recruit a sufficient number of candidates to be execu-45 tive director.

46 (5) The executive director shall be appointed jointly by the 47 appointing authorities in accordance with this subdivision, from among 48 the candidates recommended pursuant to subparagraph three of this para-49 graph.

50 (6) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this paragraph, no 51 earlier than the first day of January and no later than the thirty-first 52 day of January in the last year of the term of the executive director, 53 the appointing authorities and commissioners of election, may agree to 54 issue a certificate of party recommendation and appointment to reappoint 55 such executive director to another term of office. In such event, the 1 process otherwise specified in subparagraphs two, three and four of this 2 paragraph shall not apply.

3 (7) An executive director may be removed from office for cause by 4 the appointing authorities. In addition, an executive director may be 5 removed without cause by the appointing authorities acting jointly with 6 the commissioners of election. Any vacancy so resulting shall be 7 filled in the manner prescribed by this paragraph for filling vacancies.

8 (d) The board shall have the power and duty to take the following 9 actions to the extent otherwise consistent with the jurisdiction of the 10 board pursuant to this chapter:

11 (1) make determinations regarding the nomination and designation of 12 candidates for public office and party positions pursuant to article six 13 of this chapter or any other relevant provision of this chapter;

14 (2) make determinations regarding the form and content of ballots, 15 including but not limited to the determination of candidates and ques-

35 (ii) such contract provides for technical, consultant or personal 36 services;

37 (iii) the value of the contract exceeds or projects an annual expendi-41 (9) promulgate regulations, issue orders and make decisions regarding 42 general policies affecting the administration of elections of the city 43 of New York.

44 (e) The executive director shall serve as the chief executive for the 45 board of elections of the city of New York and shall exercise all their 46 powers and duties in a manner not inconsistent with the policies of a 47 board. The executive director may delegate powers and duties to a deputy 48 director and may delegate powers and duties to employees in furtherance 49 of the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to the abili-

4 exercising the powers conferred by this paragraph with respect to the 5 appointment of employees, the executive director shall, in consultation 6 with the New York city department of citywide administrative services

16 representation, give due weight to seniority, previous trainings and 17 experience, previous work for the board of elections or in elections 18 administration or in voting rights, education and professional creden-

20 be construed to require the preparation of administration of competitive

22 require the termination of any individual employed by the board of 23 elections of the city of New York prior to the establishment of such 24 specifications;

37 (v) policies establishing an employee performance evaluation program 38 based upon evidence of work actually performed by employees as compared 39 with pre-established performance standards;

41 elections, or specifically to the board of elections of the city of New

44 qualification of voters, voter registration and enrollment, cancellation 45 of voter registration, change of voter status and registration records 46 pursuant to article five of this chapter; in all matters relating to 50 of this chapter; and

51 (3) exercising the powers and duties delegated to boards of elections, 52 or specifically to the board of elections of the city of New York, in

2 provide information to the board of elections of the city of New York 3 and the public in accordance with this paragraph.

4 (1) At regular meetings of such board conducted in accordance with 5 article seven of the public officers law, the executive director shall 6 report to the commissioners of such board on the discharge of any powers 7 and duties exercised by the executive director under paragraph (e) of 8 this subdivision as well as any additional relevant information as may 9 be requested by majority vote of such board. At such meetings, a reason-10 able opportunity shall be provided to the public to provide oral comment 11 on the actions and operations of the board and its staff.

12 (2) Not later than January thirty-first of each year, the executive 13 director shall provide to the appointing authorities a report regarding 14 the actual performance of the board of elections of the city of New York 15 as an agency for the previous calendar year, relative to programmatic 16 goals and measures. Such report shall include such additional informa-17 tion, and be presented in such form, as may be specified in writing by 18 the city council and speaker and communicated to the executive director 19 no later than December first of the previous calendar year, provided 20 that any specification requiring the collection or maintenance of addi-21 tional data not already collected or maintained shall be specified at 22 least three months prior to the anticipated commencement of such 23 collection or maintenance. Further, at least once annually, the execu-24 tive director and elections commissioners shall present on the findings 25 of the report at a public hearing in front of the city council and 26 answer any questions or provide any additional follow up information

39 supplies, ballots, printing and publications, except newspaper notices 40 and advertisements, to be used or furnished by such board, may be 41 procured for it by the purchasing department or agency of such city as 42 if such board were an agency of such city. Such board shall comply with 17 this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
