- (c) persons formerly married to one another regardless of whether they still reside in the same household;
- (d) persons who have a child in common regardless of whether such persons have been married or have lived together at any time; [and]
- (e) persons who are not related by consanguinity or affinity and who are or have been in an intimate relationship regardless of whether such persons have lived together at any time. Factors the court may consider in determining whether a relationship is an "intimate relationship" include but are not limited to: the nature or type of relationship, regardless of whether the relationship is sexual in nature; the frequency of interaction between the persons; and the duration of the relationship. Neither a casual acquaintance nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute an "intimate relationship"; and
- (f) persons who are related by consanguinity or affinity to parties who are or have been in an intimate relationship as defined in paragraph 32 (e) of this subdivision.
 - § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 326 of the laws of 2008, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 109 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. Jurisdiction. The family court and the criminal courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction over any proceeding concerning acts which would constitute disorderly conduct, unlawful dissemination or publication of intimate image, harassment in the first degree, harassment in the aggravated harassment in the second degree, sexual second degree, misconduct, forcible touching, sexual abuse in the third degree, sexual abuse in the second degree as set forth in subdivision one of section 130.60 of the penal law, stalking in the first degree, stalking in the 46 second degree, stalking in the third degree, stalking in the fourth 47 degree, criminal mischief, menacing in the second degree, menacing in the third degree, reckless endangerment, strangulation in the first degree, strangulation in the second degree, criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation, assault in the second degree, assault in 50 the third degree, an attempted assault, identity theft in the first 52 degree, identity theft in the second degree, identity theft in the third 53 degree, grand larceny in the fourth degree, grand larceny in the third degree, coercion in the second degree or coercion in the third degree as 55 set forth in subdivisions one, two and three of section 135.60 of the 56 penal law between spouses or former spouses, or between parent and child
