AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to increasing penalties imposed on owners for failure of an operator to comply with posted speed limits in the city of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision (e) of section 1180-b of the vehicle and traffic law, as added by chapter 189 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

(e) An owner liable for a violation of subdivision (b), (c), (d), (f) or (g) of section eleven hundred eighty of this article pursuant to a demonstration program established pursuant to this section shall be liable for monetary penalties in accordance with a schedule of fines and penalties to be promulgated by the parking violations bureau of the city of New York. The liability of the owner pursuant to this section shall not exceed [~~fifty dollars for each violation~~] the dollar amounts prescribed herein for the following number of violations, committed within a period of two years: fifty dollars for the first two violations, one hundred dollars for a third violation, one hundred twenty-five dollars for a fourth violation, one hundred fifty dollars for a fifth violation, two hundred dollars for a sixth violation, and two hundred fifty dollars for a seventh and any subsequent violations; provided, however, that such parking violations bureau may provide for an additional penalty not in excess of twenty-five dollars for each violation for the failure to respond to a notice of liability within the prescribed time period.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law; provided that the amendments to section 1180-b of the vehicle and traffic law made by section one of this act shall not affect the expiration of such section and shall expire and be deemed repealed therewith.
