2 rechargeable batteries received within a city with a population of one
3 million or more.

- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 27-1807 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new paragraph d to read as follows:
- d. Providing for the safe collection and disposal of damaged, defective, or recalled batteries collected by retailers and by government agencies.
- 9 § 4. Section 27-1809 of the environmental conservation law is amended 10 by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:
 - 5. In addition to any enforcement of this title by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision four of this section, in a city with a population of one million or more, the provisions of section 27-1805 and subdivision one of section 27-1807 of this title may be enforced by an agency or agencies designated by the mayor of such city. Any notice of violation issued by an agency designated by the mayor of such city charging a violation of section 27-1805 and subdivision one of section 27-1807 of this title shall be returnable to the office of administrative trials and hearings of such city. Such office of administrative trials and hearings shall have the power to impose the civil penalties set forth in subdivisions one, two and three of this section. All civil penalties collected for any violation of this title that have been imposed by the office of administrative trials and hearings of such city shall be paid into the general fund of such city.
- 25 § 5. Section 27-1811 of the environmental conservation law, as added 26 by chapter 562 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows: 27 § 27-1811. State preemption.

Jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to rechargeable battery recycling is, by this title, vested exclusively in the state. Any provision of any local law or ordinance, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto, governing rechargeable battery recycling shall, upon the effective date of section 27-1805 of this title, be preempted; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall preclude a person from coordinating, for recycling or reuse, the collection of rechargeable batteries and provided, further, however, that nothing in this section shall preclude the enforcement of this title pursuant to subdivision five of section 27-1809 of this title.

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
