parks, recreational facilities and tourist attractions; and such other programs as authorized by local law; provided, however, that at least one-half of such amount shall be allocated for the official tourism promotion agency of the county for marketing, advertising, and promoting the county.

b. Any amount of revenues derived from such tax over three-fifths of such revenues shall be credited to and deposited into a special lake management and enhancement fund, thereafter to be allocated by the county government of Chautauqua county through the county budget process solely for the purposes of maintaining and enhancing the usability and attractiveness of the lakes of Chautauqua county for residents and visitors, including, but not limited to, environmentally responsible control, treatment, and/or removal of invasive or nuisance submerged aquatic vegetation; reduction of harmful algae blooms; shoreline maintenance and cleanup; the enhancement of lakes for fishing, boating and other recreational activities; reduction of watershed erosion, sedimentation and nutrient loading; and such other programs as authorized by local law consistent with such purposes; provided, however, that at least one-half of such amount shall be allocated for activities that control, treat, and/or remove invasive or nuisance submerged aquatic vegetation, reduce harmful algae blooms, or provide shoreline cleanup.

c. Such local laws shall provide that the county shall be authorized to retain up to a maximum of ten percent of such revenue to defer the necessary expenses of the county in administering such tax and such programs.

d. The county may, in its discretion, as a condition of receiving funding, require recipients of such funding to meet specified performance requirements; meet maintenance-of-effort requirements; provide matching contributions; comply with reasonable limitations on fund balances; comply with appropriate accounting, performance, and reporting requirements, including reporting of time and material costs, GPS tracking data, equipment utilization information, and similar information; cooperate and coordinate with the county and with other organizations and entities receiving funding; and impose similar requirements and restrictions on recipients of such funding.

§ 3. Section 1202-j of the tax law, as added by chapter 366 of the laws of 1989, is amended by adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

38 39 (9) All revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under the local laws shall be paid into the treasury of the county of Chautauqua 40 and shall be credited to and deposited in a special tourism and conven-41 42 tion fund, thereafter to be allocated by the county legislature of Chau-43 tauqua county through the county budget process for tourism and conven-44 tion development in such county. The revenue derived from such tax, 45 after deducting the amount provided for administering such tax as so 46 authorized by local law, shall be allocated only for the purposes of 47 enhancing and promoting Chautauqua county, its cities, towns and 48 villages through the promotion of tourism, conventions, trade shows, 49 special events and other directly related and supporting activities 50 including, but not limited to, programs to improve the aesthetic qualities of the county; to enhance the environment; to improve infrastruc-51 52 ture related to tourism, conventions and trade shows; to develop, operate and maintain parks, recreational facilities and tourist attractions; 53 and such other programs as authorized by local law. Such local laws 54 shall provide that the county shall be authorized to retain up to a 55
