(a) Application forms shall be furnished by and may be obtained from any board of elections at any time until the day before such election, or on the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system. Application forms shall also be supplied by the board of inspectors of the election district in which the applicant is a qualified voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the date of the next election, on all of the days provided for local registration. In addition, application forms shall be supplied upon the request of the person authorized to vote pursuant to this section, any such person's spouse, parent or child, a person residing with the applicant as a member of his or her household, or the applicant's duly authorized agent. Application forms sent outside of the United States to a country other than Canada or Mexico, shall be sent airmail. Any reference to "board of elections" in the remaining provisions of this section, except with respect to the furnishing and obtaining of applications for absentee ballots, means only the board of elections of the county or city in which the applicant is a qualified voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the date of the next election.

(b) Applications may be filed with the board of elections, through the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system or in person with the board of inspectors of the election district in which the applicant is a qualified voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the date of the next election, on one of the days provided for local registration.

(c) All applications requesting an absentee ballot by mail or through the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system must be received by the board of elections not later than the fifteenth day before the election for which a ballot is first requested. Applications for an absentee ballot that will be delivered in person at the board of elections to the voter or to an agent of the voter must be received by such board not later than the day before such election.

(d) The board of elections shall mail an absentee ballot to every qualified voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the date of the next election, who is otherwise eligible for such a ballot, who requests such an absentee ballot from such board of elections in writing in a letter, telefax indicating the address, phone number and the telefax number from which the writing is sent or other written instrument, or an electronic application submitted by the voter through the electronic absentee ballot application transmittal system established by the state board of elections, which is signed by the voter and received by the board of elections not later than the fifteenth day before the election for which the ballot is first requested and which states the address where the voter is registered and the address to which the ballot is to be mailed; provided, however, a military voter may request a military ballot or voter registration application or an absentee ballot application in a letter as provided in subdivision three of section 10-106 of this chapter; and provided further, a special federal voter may request a special federal ballot or voter registration application or an absentee ballot application in a letter as provided in paragraph d of subdivision one of section 11-202 of this chapter. The board of elections shall enclose with such ballot a form of application for absentee ballot if the applicant is registered with such board of elections.

(e) When mailing an absentee ballot application to a voter the board of elections shall provide a domestic postage paid return envelope. When providing an absentee ballot application to a voter in-person, the board

1 of elections shall offer the voter a domestic postage paid return envel-
2 ope and provide one if requested.

3 (b) A statement that the applicant is a qualified and registered 4 voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the date of the 5 next election.

6 8. Printed forms of applications for absentee ballots in accordance 7 with the requirements of this section shall be provided by the board of 8 elections. An appropriate number shall be retained by the board of 9 elections for the purpose of furnishing an application form to each 10 qualified voter, or pre-registered voter who will be qualified on the 11 date of the next election, who applies therefor before the board of 12 elections, either in person or by mail, and an appropriate number shall 13 be delivered to each board of inspectors on registration days with the 14 election supplies, and the board of inspectors shall retain the 15 completed and unused applications and return them to the board of 16 elections with their election supplies and an appropriate number shall 17 be available for distribution to officers of political parties, county 18 clerks, city, town and village clerks, colleges, libraries, hospitals, 19 nursing homes, senior citizens centers and any other convenient distrib-
20 ution source which is approved by the local or state board of elections 21 and which requests such forms.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
