AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to establishing a New York state prison labor board to ensure that all labor programs comply with the requirements of the labor law and are for the purpose of promoting successful rehabilitation, reentry and reintegration into the community and not for the purpose of earnings or cost-savings which inure to the benefit of the state or any private individual or corporation, prohibiting the department of corrections and community supervision from unfairly attaching, garnishing or disbursing the funds of incarcerated individuals where such individuals have not requested disbursement, and requiring that all interest accumulated on incarcerated individuals' funds be credited to such individual's accounts; and to repeal sections 184, 185 and 186 of the correction law relating thereto; to amend the state finance law and the legislative law, in relation to eliminating the preferred status of the department of corrections and community supervision regarding commodities and services furnished by the correctional industries program; and to repeal certain provisions of the state finance law relating to such preferred status

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Short Title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
- 2 the "fairness and opportunity for incarcerated workers act".
- 3 § 2. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature hereby declares
- 4 that:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00136-03-4

1 1. The current system of prison labor in New York is an outgrowth of 2 the legacy of slavery and has been allowed to continue in our state
3 because of the exception created in the 13th Amendment which abolished
4 slavery "except as punishment for a crime."

5 2. The history of prison labor in New York can be traced back to 6 Auburn Prison, where a cruel and dehumanizing system of forced labor was 7 established 200 years ago with the goal of creating a self-sustaining 8 prison system.

9 3. Today, incarcerated individuals are forced to work under threat of 10 punishment; hourly wages range from ten to sixty-five cents an hour and 11 have not increased since 1993; work conditions are unsafe and have 12 resulted in serious injury and even death; assigned work programs are 13 insufficient to provide incarcerated individuals with the skills and 14 training necessary for successful rehabilitation, reentry and reinte-15 gration into the community; and there currently exists no means by which 16 incarcerated individuals can organize to work toward improving these 17 conditions.

18 4. The labor of incarcerated individuals has been used to create 19 millions of dollars of profits and cost-savings for the state.

20 5. The current system of prison labor is a violation of human rights
21 and an affront to human dignity.

22 6. The Fairness and Opportunity for Incarcerated Workers Act will: end 23 forced labor; provide for a minimum wage, healthy and safe working 24 conditions, and the right to organize; and require that all work
25 programs provide incarcerated individuals with the skills and training 26 necessary for successful rehabilitation, reentry, and reintegration into 27 the community. The act also establishes a labor board to ensure that 28 these requirements are met; provides a means of redress if labor laws
29 are violated; and eliminates Corcraft's preferred vendor status.

30 § 3. Section 2 of the correction law is amended by adding two new 31 subdivisions 35 and 36 to read as follows:

32 35. "Labor program" means any job or work whereby the department
33 employs, assigns or permits an incarcerated individual to provide 34 services in any correctional facility, jail, reformatory or other insti-
35 tution in the state and for which the minimum wage established by arti-
36 cle nineteen of the labor law would have been due but for such individ-
37 ual's condition of incarceration. Labor programs shall include, but not 38 be limited to, Corcraft prison industry jobs, facility needs jobs,
39 kitchen, laundry, library, groundskeeping and other in-house prison
40 operation and upkeep work, and any other work whereby the labor of an 41 incarcerated individual is contracted, let, farmed out, given or sold to 42 the state, any subdivision thereof, or any public, nonprofit or private 43 entity, shareholder or individual.

44 36. "Labor board" means the prison labor board established pursuant to 45 section 200-a of this chapter.

46 § 4. Section 116 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 322 of 47 the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

48 § 116. [~~incarcerated~~] Incarcerated individuals' funds. The warden or 49 superintendent of each of the institutions within the jurisdiction of 50 the department of corrections and community supervision shall deposit at 51 least once in each week to [~~his or her~~] such warden or superintendent's 52 credit as such warden, or superintendent, in such bank or banks as may 53 be designated by the comptroller, all the moneys received by [~~him or~~ 54 ~~her~~] such warden or superintendent as such warden, or superintendent, as 55 incarcerated individuals' funds, and send to the comptroller and also to 56 the commissioner monthly, a statement showing the amount so received and

1 deposited. Such statement of deposits shall be certified by the proper
2 officer of the bank receiving such deposit or deposits. The warden, or 3 superintendent, shall also verify by ~~[his or her]~~ such warden or super-
4 intendent's affidavit that the sum so deposited is all the money
5 received by ~~[him or her]~~ such warden or superintendent as incarcerated
6 individuals' funds during the month. Any bank in which such deposits
7 shall be made shall, before receiving any such deposits, file a bond
8 with the comptroller of the state, subject to ~~[his or her]~~ such comp-9 troller's approval, for such sum as ~~[he or she]~~ such comptroller shall 10 deem necessary. Upon a certificate of approval issued by the director of 11 the budget, ~~[pursuant to the provisions of section fifty three of the~~ 12 ~~state finance law,~~ the amount of interest, if any, heretofore accrued
13 and hereafter to accrue on moneys so deposited, heretofore and hereafter 14 credited to the warden, or superintendent, by the bank from time to 15 time, shall be ~~[available for expenditure by the warden, or superinten-~~
16 ~~dent, subject to the direction of the commissioner, for welfare work~~
17 ~~among the incarcerated individuals in his or her custody. The withdrawal~~
18 ~~of moneys so deposited by such warden, or superintendent, as incarcerat-~~ 19 ~~ed individuals' funds, including any interest so credited, shall be~~ 20 ~~subject to his or her check]~~ designated as incarcerated individual's 21 funds. Each warden, or superintendent, shall each month provide the 22 comptroller and also the commissioner with a record of all withdrawals
23 from incarcerated individuals' funds. As used in this section, the term 24 "incarcerated individuals' funds" means the funds in the possession of 25 the incarcerated individual at the time of ~~[his or her]~~ such incarcerat-26 ed individual's admission into the institution, funds earned by ~~[him or~~ 27 ~~her]~~ such incarcerated individual as provided in section one hundred 28 eighty-seven of this chapter, interest accrued on such funds, and any 29 other funds received by ~~[him or her]~~ such incarcerated individual or on 30 ~~[his or her]~~ such incarcerated individual's behalf and deposited with 31 such warden or superintendent in accordance with the rules and regu-
32 lations of the commissioner. ~~[Whenever the total unencumbered value of~~ 33 ~~funds in an incarcerated individual's account exceeds ten thousand~~ 34 ~~dollars, the superintendent shall give written notice to the office of~~ 35 ~~victim services.]~~

36 § 5. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 200-a to 37 read as follows:
