A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article.

The disclosure requirement in questions (b) and (b-1) ~~[and (b-2)]~~ shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharma-

1 ceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 2 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her
3 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting
4 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 5 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 6 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court,
7 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting
8 individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance
9 policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only 10 report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individ-11 ual; with respect to matters in which the client's name is required by 12 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family 13 court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or 14 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 15 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 16 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 17 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-
18 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work,
19 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 20 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 21 office of court administration, who will maintain such information
22 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 23 to questions (b) and (b-1) [~~and (b-2)~~] that pursuant to this paragraph, 24 a disclosure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon 25 such time that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked 26 box is no longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal 27 law or regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such informa-
28 tion in an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure
29 requirements in questions (b) and (b-1) [~~and (b-2)~~]. The office of court 30 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 31 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 32 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 33 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 34 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the 35 commission on ethics and [~~lobbying~~] lobbying in government pursuant to 36 section ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court 37 administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall 38 state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services 39 or seeking my services in connection with:

40 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 41 reporting period;

42 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state
43 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

44 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency
45 during the reporting period;

46 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 47 reporting period; or

48 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
49 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

50 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
51 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 52 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative 53 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may 54 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, 55 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of 56 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider

factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January first, two thousand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.

(c) ~~[APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN.]~~

If the reporting individual receives income of ten thousand dollars or greater from any employment or activity reportable under question 8(a), identify each registered lobbyist who has directly referred to such individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting individual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value of the compensation received and a general description of the type of matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to

1 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-
2 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters 3 in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to 4 minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent 5 that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal repre-6 sentation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or 7 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 8 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 9 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 10 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-
11 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 12 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 13 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 14 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 15 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 16 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response
17 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 18 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 19 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 20 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 21 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 22 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the 23 commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section
24 ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court adminis-
25 tration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the 26 following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking 27 my services in connection with:

28 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 29 reporting period;

30 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state
31 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

32 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency
33 during the reporting period;

34 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the
35 reporting period; or

36 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
37 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

38 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics
39 and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may 40 consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative
41 ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may
42 consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination,
43 the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of
44 court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider 45 factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of 46 the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; 47 and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has 48 any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how signif-
49 icant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade
50 secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation 51 against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the 52 client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attor-53 ney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an 54 unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

55 The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case
56 may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.
