2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

June 28, 2023

Introduced by Sen. SCARCELLA-SPANTON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to permit accidental death benefits to be awarded to the beneficiary of Anthony Varvaro

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, rule or regulation
2 to the contrary, Anthony Varvaro, who was a member of the New
3 York state and local police and fire retirement system employed as a
4 police officer by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, and who
5 died on September 11, 2022 as the result of an accident which occurred
6 while he was travelling to work, shall be deemed to have died as the 7 natural and proximate result of an accident sustained in the performance
8 of duty. The beneficiary or beneficiaries of Anthony Varvaro shall be 9 eligible to receive the accidental death benefit if an application
10 therefor is filed within one year of the effective date of this act.
11 Any amounts paid by the New York state and local police and fire
12 retirement system as the result of the death of Anthony Varvaro prior 13 to the receipt of the accidental death benefit pursuant to this section
14 shall be deducted from the benefit payable on an actuarially equivalent
15 basis over the expected future lifetime of the beneficiary or 16 beneficiaries.

17 § 2. All costs associated with this act shall be borne by the state of 18 New York.

19 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would make the statutory beneficiaries of Anthony Varvaro eligible to collect an accidental death benefit pursuant to Sections 361 and 361-a of the Retirement and Social Security Law. Anthony Varvaro was a police officer employed by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and a member of the New York State and Local Police and Fire

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

Retirement System until their death on September 11, 2022. Currently, an ordinary death benefit equal to three times the member's prior 12-month salary is payable to the beneficiary selected by the member.

If this bill is enacted during the 2023 legislative session, there will be an immediate past service cost of approximately $6.67 million which will be borne by the State of New York as a one-time payment. This estimate assumes that payment will be made on March 1, 2024.

The statutory beneficiary must file an application for the accidental death benefits, in lieu of the ordinary death benefits, within one year of the bill's effective date.
