10 by rape.

11 682. Hearing.

12 § 681. Termination of parental rights upon a finding of conception by 13 rape. 1. A proceeding for termination of parental rights on the grounds 14 of a finding of conception by rape is originated by a petition alleging 15 that the respondent committed the crime of rape in the first degree as 16 defined in section 130.35, rape in the second degree as defined in 17 section 130.30, or rape in the third degree as defined in section 130.25 18 of the penal law, and that the child was conceived as a result of such 19 rape. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the provisions of part 20 one of this article shall apply to all proceedings.

21 2. At the conclusion of the hearing under section six hundred eighty-22 two of this part the court may terminate all of the parental rights and 23 responsibilities of the respondent if the respondent is found by clear 24 and convincing evidence to have committed rape in the first degree as 25 defined in section 130.35, rape in the second degree as defined in 26 section 130.30 or rape in the third degree as defined in section 130.25
27 of the penal law, and the child was conceived as a result of such act.
28 An order of disposition shall be made, pursuant to this section, solely 29 on the basis of the best interests of the child, and there shall be no 30 presumption that such interests will be promoted by any particular 31 disposition.

32 § 682. Hearing. The court shall hold a hearing under this part to 33 determine whether the allegations in the petition that the respondent 34 committed rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35, rape in 35 the second degree as defined in section 130.30 or rape in the third
36 degree as defined in section 130.25 of the penal law, and that the child 37 was conceived as a result of such act are supported by clear and 38 convincing proof. Only competent, material and relevant evidence may be 39 admitted in a hearing pursuant to this section. A conviction of the 40 respondent on the charges alleged shall not be required for a finding 41 under this section.

42 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
