A person is quilty of failure to retreat when he or she is within 5 twenty-five feet of a police officer or peace officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties and the police officer or peace officer orders such person to halt or retreat and the person fails to do so immediately.

An individual shall not be guilty of this offense if such individual 10 (a) suffers from a physical disability or physical injury and halting or 11 retreating would exacerbate such disability or injury, or (b) a physical 12 barrier makes it physically impossible for the individual to halt or 13 retreat.

Under this section, police officer and peace officer are as defined under section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

Failure to retreat is a class D felony.

- § 2. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the 18 criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
- 21 (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-22 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 2 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate 5 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that 7 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant 9 committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes 10 this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a quali-11 fying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of 12 "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include paragraph, but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 13 14 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the 15 court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be 16 in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be 17 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-18 tary conditions; [ex] 19

(u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[$_{\mathbf{r}}$]; or

(v) failure to retreat as defined in section 205.40 of the penal law.

§ 3. Subparagraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (xx) as amended and subparagraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new subparagraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; [ex]

(xxi) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law[-]; or (xxii) failure to retreat as defined in section 205.40 of the penal law.

§ 4. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 4 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:
