Subdivision 8 of section 50-e of the general municipal law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

- (c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any civil claims or causes of action brought by any person to recover damages for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered while in custody pursuant to section two hundred eight-a of the civil practice law and rules, at the time the cause of action occurred when such person was in custody pursuant to such section.
- § 3. Section 50-i of the general municipal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:
 - 6. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any civil claims or causes of action made against a city, county, town, village, fire district or school district brought by any person to recover damages for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered while in custody pursuant to section two hundred eight-a of the civil practice law and rules, at the time when such cause of action occurs.
 - § 4. Subdivision 2 of section 50-e of the general municipal law, amended by chapter 62 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:
 - 2. Form of notice; contents. The notice shall be in writing, sworn to by or on behalf of the claimant, and shall set forth: (1) the name and post-office address of each claimant, and of his attorney, if any; (2) the nature of the claim; (3) to the best of the claimant's knowledge and belief, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claim arose; and (4) the items of damage or injuries claimed to have been sustained so far as then practicable but a notice with respect to a claim against a municipal corporation other than a city with a population of one million or more persons shall not state the amount of damages to which the claimant deems himself entitled, provided, however, that the municipal corporation, other than a city with a population of one million or more persons, may at any time request a supplemental claim setting forth the total damages to which the claimant deems himself entitled. A supplemental claim shall be provided by the claimant within fifteen days of the request. In the event the supplemental demand is not served within fifteen days, the court, on motion, may order it be provided by the claimant.
 - § 5. Section 10 of the court of claims act is amended by adding a new subdivision 11 to read as follows:
 - 11. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any civil claims or causes of action made against a city, county, town, village, fire district or school district brought by any person to recover damages for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered while in custody pursuant to section hundred eight-a of the civil practice law and rules.
 - 6. Subdivision b of section 11 of the court of claims act, as amended by chapter 606 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read follows:
- b. The claim shall state the time when and place where, to the best of the claimant's knowledge and belief, such claim arose which shall be produced in the claim, the nature of same, the items of damage or injuries claimed to have been sustained and, except in an action to recover damages for personal injury, medical, dental or podiatric malpractice or wrongful death, the total sum claimed.
