(b) Signatures for an independent petition for the general election shall be collected during a twelve week period beginning the Monday before Memorial day and ending the third Monday of August. No signature for an independent petition for the general election shall be counted if made prior to or after such period.

§ 4. Subdivisions 9, 11 and 12 of section 6-158 of the election law, as amended by chapter 164 of the laws of 2022, are amended to read as follows:

9. A petition for an independent nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not earlier than ~~[twenty-four]~~ twenty-three weeks and not later than ~~[twenty-three]~~ six weeks preceding such election. A petition for an independent nomination for an office to be filled at a special election shall be filed not later than twelve days following the issuance of a proclamation of such election, provided however, such certificate shall be filed not later than nine days following the issuance of a proclamation of a special election held pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision three of section forty-two of the public officers law.

11. A certificate of acceptance or declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than ~~[the third day after the twenty-third Tuesday]~~ seven weeks preceding such general election ~~[except that a candidate who files such a certificate of acceptance for an office for which there have been filed certificates or petitions designating more than one candidate for the nomination of any party, may thereafter file a certificate of declination not later than the third day after the primary election]~~. A certificate of acceptance or declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at a special election shall be filed not later than fourteen days following the issuance of a proclamation of such election, provided however, such certificate shall be filed not later than eleven days following the issuance of a proclamation of a special election held pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision three of section forty-two of the public officers law.

12. A certificate to fill a vacancy caused by a declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than ~~[the sixth day after the twenty-third Tuesday]~~ seven weeks preceding such election. A certificate to fill a vacancy caused by a declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at a special election shall be filed not later than sixteen days following the issuance of a proclamation of such election, provided however, such certificate shall be filed not later than thirteen days following the issuance of a proclamation of a special election held pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision three of section forty-two of the public officers law.

§ 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 6 of section 6-158 of the election law, as amended by chapter 474 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A certificate of a party nomination made other than at the primary election for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than ~~[thirty days after the June primary election]~~ seven weeks preceding such general election,

§ 6. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 6 of section 6-158 of the election law, as amended by chapter 164 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A certificate of a party nomination made other than at the primary election for an office to be filled at the time of a general election

1 shall be filed not later than [~~thirty days after the primary election~~]
2 seven weeks preceding such general election,
3 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, the 4 amendments to paragraph (a) of subdivision 6 of section 6-158 of the 5 election law made by section five of this act shall be subject to the 6 expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to section 18 of 7 chapter 474 of the laws of 2023, as amended, when upon such date the 8 provisions of section six of this act shall take effect.
