1 (g) if any such child shall die, the date and cause of death and place
2 of burial[7];

3 (h) any further disposition or change in care, custody or control of 4 the child[7];

5 (i) the date or dates of reception and of any subsequent disposition
6 or change in care, custody or control and, in case of adoption, the name 7 and title of the judge or surrogate making the order of adoption, the 8 date of such order and the date and place of filing of such order[7];

9 (j) the reasons for any act performed in reference to such child here-10 in required to be recorded, together with such further information as 11 the department may require; and shall make to the department upon blanks 12 provided by the department reports of each such child placed out, or 13 boarded out, containing the information herein required to be kept; and 14 shall furnish such information to any authorized agency to which any 15 such child shall be committed or otherwise given into custody; and

16 (k) if any such child shall have a developmental disability as defined 17 pursuant to subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene 18 law, and, if so, the type of such developmental disability.

19 § 2. The commissioner of the office of children and family services, 20 in consultation with the commissioner of the office for people with 21 developmental disabilities, shall conduct a study to determine the 22 number of children who have been placed in foster care and who have been 23 diagnosed with a developmental disability. Such study shall include, but 24 shall not be limited to, the following:

25 (a) assessing the demographics of the children in foster care with a 26 developmental disability, including, but not limited to, their county of 27 residence, age, race and gender identity, and determining whether the 28 placement of such individuals in foster care was voluntary or court 29 ordered;

30 (b) evaluating the current guidelines and regulations used to oversee 31 the placement and treatment of children with a developmental disability; 32 and

33 (c) analyzing the extent to which such age-appropriate children are 34 prepared for a transition from foster care to an independent living
35 situation.

36 § 3. For purposes of this act, "developmental disability" shall have 37 the same meaning as set forth in subdivision 22 of section 1.03 of the 38 mental hygiene law.

39 § 4. The commissioner of the office of children and family services
40 and the commissioner of the office for people with developmental disa-
41 bilities may acquire directly from the head of any department, agency, 42 or instrumentality of the state, available non-identifiable information
43 which the offices consider useful in the discharge of their duties. All 44 departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the state shall cooper-45 ate with the offices with respect to such information and shall furnish 46 all information requested by the offices to the extent permitted by law.
47 Information collected shall not reveal the name, social security number 48 or any other information which may be used to identify the children or 49 the family of the children.

50 § 5. The commissioner of the office of children and family services
51 and the commissioner of the office for people with developmental disa-52 bilities shall submit a report of the findings of the study, with any 53 personal and identifying information redacted, conducted pursuant to 54 section one of this act, to the governor, the temporary president of the 55 senate, the speaker of the assembly and the minority leaders of the 56 senate and assembly no later than one year following the effective date

1 of this act. The report shall also include recommendations on how to 2 consistently maintain a record of the number of children who have been 3 placed in foster care who have been diagnosed with a developmental disa-
4 bility, recommendations to improve the placement and treatment of chil-5 dren in foster care and recommendations to further develop existing 6 guidelines and regulations to prepare age-appropriate children who have 7 a developmental disability for a transition to an independent living
8 situation.

9 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
