Introduced by Sen. ORTT -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to requiring state reimbursement for costs incurred by counties when holding individuals on parole violations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 96 to read as follows:

§ 96. County reimbursement for certain detention costs. Expenditures made by counties in providing care, maintenance and supervision to parolees in detention facilities being held for technical parole violations pending a hearing with their parole officer, shall be subject to reimbursement by the state.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
