1 (A) to support the child [and];

2 (B) to notify the social services official if the adoptive parents are 3 no longer providing any support of the child or are no longer legally 4 responsible for the support of the child[-]; and

5 (C) to notify the social services official if: (I) another person has 6 been granted physical custody of the child; (II) another person has been 7 appointed guardian for the child; or (III) the child no longer resides 8 with the adoptive parents.

9 (c-2) (i) If the adoptive parents fail to respond to an annual certifi-
10 cation notice within thirty days of the receipt of the certification
11 notice from the social services official or the social services official 12 receives from any person information that provides reasonable cause to 13 suspect that the adoptive parents are no longer providing any support to 14 the child, the social services official shall review whether the adop-15 tive parents are legally responsible for the support of the child and 16 whether the child is receiving any support from the adoptive parents.
17 Circumstances in which the social services official shall conduct this 18 review include the following:

19 (A) the child has been placed in foster care;

20 (B) a person alleges to the social services official that:

21 (I) a person other than the adoptive parent has been granted legal

25 parent.

26 (ii) The adoptive parents shall be given an opportunity to respond to 27 the notice. Upon receiving confirmation that the parents continue to 28 meet their legal obligations to provide support to the child, the 29 department will take no further action to reduce, suspend, or terminate
30 the subsidy. If the parents fail to confirm that they continue to meet 31 their legal obligations to provide support to the child, the social 32 services official shall review all available information in order to 33 confirm the parents' continued eligibility to receive the subsidy.

34 (iii) If the child is not in foster care and, based on a review of the 35 available information, the social services official determines that the 36 adoptive parents are no longer legally responsible for the support of 37 the child or that the child is no longer receiving any support from the 38 adoptive parents, the social services official shall terminate the 39 assistance provided to the adoptive parents pursuant to this section.
40 The adoptive parents may appeal the termination of assistance to the 41 department in accordance with section twenty-two of this chapter.

42 (iv) If the child is in foster care and the social services official 43 determines that the child is no longer receiving any support from the 44 adoptive parents, the social services official may reduce, suspend, or 45 terminate the assistance provided to the adoptive parents pursuant to 46 this section. The adoptive parents may appeal the termination of assist-47 ance to the department in accordance with section twenty-two of this 48 chapter. If assistance is reduced, suspended or terminated pursuant to 49 this paragraph and the child is returned from foster care to the care of 50 the adoptive parents, the social services official shall resume assist-51 ance effective from the date when the child was returned to the adoptive 52 parent's care.

53 (c-3) If the social services official terminates the adoption assist-
54 ance provided to adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-2) of this 55 subdivision and the child resides with another person who has been

1 social services official shall enter into a written agreement to make 2 adoption assistance payments to the custodian or guardian; provided, 3 however, that no person shall receive an adoption subsidy payment for

6 of this article or for whom they previously had parental rights which 7 were surrendered pursuant to a written instrument executed in accordance 8 with section three hundred eighty-three-c of this article. Such 9 payments shall be made retroactive from the termination of assistance to 10 the adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-2) of this subdivision and 11 shall be made until the child's twenty-first birthday. A custodian or 12 guardian who receives adoption assistance payments pursuant to this 13 paragraph shall be subject to the same requirements that apply to adop-14 tive parents under this section.

15 (c-4) If the social services official terminates the adoption assist-
16 ance provided to adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-2) of this 17 subdivision after the eighteenth birthday and before the twenty-first 18 birthday of the adopted child, and no person other than the adoptive 19 parents has legal custody or guardianship of the child, the social 20 services official shall make payments to the child:

21 (i) through direct payments to the child, if the social services offi-
22 cial determines the child demonstrates the ability to manage such direct 23 payments; or

24 (ii) to a representative payee certified by the social services offi-
25 cial in accordance with paragraph (g) of this subdivision.

32 adoptive parent or parents or the termination of assistance to the adop-
33 tive parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (c-2) of this subdivision
34 after the eighteenth birthday of the child.

45 days of submission, the voluntary authorized agency may submit the
